Tighter Control Over
Truck Haul Operations

San Bruno councilmen formally adopted the city's long-awaited trucking ordinance amendments Monday night, and established tighter municipal control over truck operations on the city streets.

Formal adoption of the ordinance came as a footnote to a court battle which began in 1964 when South San Francisco trucking contractor Nicholas Ratkovich challenged the city's right to levy fees for dirt haul operations on certain streets.

The United States Appeals Court in San Francisco overruled the earlier court decision last October, clearing the way for stiffer city control of the trucking operations.

Under the new ordinance amendments, all east-west truck routes through the city are eliminated, and provisions are included for levying fees for damages to city streets in instances where special permits are granted.

However, the collection of fees is not the central intent of the new regulations, according to City Manager Gerard Verger.

"The new ordinance is aimed primarily at controlling trucking operations and protecting the streets," he said.

The ordinance specifically prohibits the use of San Bruno Avenue, San Mateo Avenue, Herman Street, Crystal Springs Road and Sneath Lane by trucks of more than 16,000 pounds gross weight.

It also stipulates that any hauling permit issued for a period in excess of 90 days be approved by the city council.

The city manager is authorized to issue permits for periods up to 90 days.

Trucks making deliveries or picking up material in the city of San Bruno will not be affected by the ordinance, according to City Attorney Joseph Galligan, because state regulations assuring such access.

Duo Gets $50,000 In Cash

By DON GRIERSON

A pair of "cool and professional" armed bandits held up the White Front Store in South San Francisco Saturday and escaped with $50,000 after tying up 15 employees with rope and wire.

The robbery, which was "carefully cased and pulled off without a hitch," according to a security guard, took place at 8:05 a.m. when the assistant manager at the store unlocked the rear door to allow an employee to enter.

The two men, both Negroes in their twenties, approached security guard Benny Drumgoole at the rear door about 7:30 a.m. and asked to see the manager "to apply for a job."

Drumgoole told them the manager would not be available until the store opened at 10 a.m.

The pair waited around until a store employee appeared at the rear door. When assistant manager John Berry unlocked the door, the two men rushed in with .38 caliber revolvers and (Please See Page 2, Column 6)

New Serra Freeway Unit Open on 27th

The new Interstate 280 (Junipero Serra) freeway section between Eastmoor Avenue in Daly City and a half mile south of Arroyo Drive in South San Francisco will be opened to traffic September 27.

The opening will follow ribbon-cutting ceremonies at 11 a.m. sponsored jointly by the Daly City Chamber of Commerce and the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

Work has been under way by contractor Guy F. Atkinson Company since September 1965, for an approximate construction cost of $10,430,000.

The new freeway lanes will connect on the north with the previously opened 2.6-mile section extending from the vicinity of Eastmoor Avenue in Daly City to Orizaba Avenue and the Southern Freeway in San Francisco.

The new construction included interchanges at Westborough Boulevard, the Hickey Boulevard Extension, Collins Avenue and the future Route 1 freeway, as well as the 3.4 miles of eight-lane freeway. Undercrossings were constructed at King Drive, Hickey Boulevard, Collins Avenue and the Chinese Cemetery Road, and an overcrossing was provided at the Sullivan Avenue ramp.

PUBLIC RELATIONS MALADY

'Sewerage' and The Turned Up Noses

By FRANK LAPIERRE

One of Daly City's most important and fastest-growing utilities suffers from a modern-day malady—lack of public relations.

The truth of the matter is: the mere mention of the word "sewerage" and most people turn up their noses and shuffle off in the opposite direction, according to Northern Sanitation District engineer-manager Robert Bernicchi.

And yet the district is a utility that residents could not possibly get along without for any length of time.

The disposal of waste materials is an absolute necessity for today's cities. The bigger the city, the bigger the responsibility of the district. And Daly City is growing at an alarming rate.

Less than 14 years ago, voters passed a $600,000 bond issue for construction of an up-to-date sanitation plant and outflow on a ten-acre tract adjacent to the Westlake Park.

At that time the plant facility appeared to be designed to handle the needs of the community for the foreseeable future. But in this very short period of time the city outgrew the plant.

The city's population exploded from a sleepy bedroom community of 30,000 in 1955 to more than 68,000 today. And the city continues to grow and prosper.

Primarily due to this sudden growth the district was served with a cease and desist order in 1961 from the Regional Water Pollution Control Board because the district was allegedly contaminating the beaches in the area.

The district applied for, and received, a federal grant of some $138,500 (30 per cent of actual cost) for construction of a one-half mile long outflow facility off Thornton Beach. This solved the problem of disposing of "treated" sewerage and will enable the district to provide adequate service for a district that will some day total 150,000 residents.

Most people take the sanitation district for granted, Bernicchi says.

The maze of pipes, gauges, tanks and pumps impresses first time visitors to the facility.

On a tour of the plant, Bernicchi points to a huge tank and explains "That's our stomach—it digests solids and reacts much the same as your own stomach."

The digest is heated to a "body temperature" of 98.6 degrees F., the same as the human body. And like the human body it creates bacteria, thus generating methane gases which, in turn, are used to heat the tank and maintain a constant temperature.

The Airport— A Big Stake

S.S.F. Merchants Urged
To Support Bond Issue

South San Francisco businessmen have a tremendous stake in the proposed airport improvement bond issue in San Francisco, an airline executive told chamber of commerce members Monday night.

Vincent W. Sheridan, station manager for Air California Co., at the International Airport, told the chamber members South San Francisco merchants should lend full support to the bond issue drive "because it is of vital concern to your community."

Speaking at the regular monthly membership meeting of the C of C, Sheridan said there is a great need throughout the North Peninsula area for additional services for the airport's 37,000 daily passengers.

"This is an area of business which could be developed far beyond the present level of services, and such development would be of great benefit to both the airport and the community," he said.

In other business at the meeting, chamber members endorsed the proposal for a Sierra Point Bay bridge crossing, and adopted a resolution supporting Assemblyman Leo Ryan's suggestion that North Peninsula cities present a unified front in obtaining the new bridge.

A representative of the South San Francisco Unified School District, Tom Gaffney, asked the chamber's support of the school bond issue in the scheduled election next month.

Chamber directors will consider the bond issue proposal at a meeting today, according to new manager Neal Whitelaw.

C of C president William Borba announced at the meeting that the chamber-sponsored bus service to the Industrial Park area in the city will be inaugurated November 15.

The chamber has performed a number of surveys of industrial firms and employees to determine transportation needs in the area.

A Judo Contest Injury

A Millbrae youth was seriously injured Sunday during a Daly City Recreation Department-sponsored judo match at the War Memorial Building.

James Papageorge, 16, of 1145 Helen Drive, Millbrae, apparently "landed wrong" during a Judo throw and suffered a possible head injury.

According to witnesses young Papageorge had won one match and was trying for his second success when he was thrown to the mat, apparently head first.

He staggered to a nearby bench and became dizzy.

A team of doctors in attendance at the Second Annual Recreational Department Judo Tournament suggested the boy be taken to Mary's Help Hospital for treatment.

Papageorge was immediately placed in the hospital's intensive care unit for treatment of a possible concussion.

Recreational department supervisor Edward Tomasello said this was the first injury sustained during the tournament's two year history.

Last year more than 290 contestants battled in a variety of weight and age classes for judo honors "and not one single person was hurt," Tomasello said.

Witnesses to Papageorge's accident said the fall "didn't look serious."

Recreational Department officials along with local judo experts were continuing their investigation of the accident, Tomasello said.

Free Fill From Creek

South San Francisco councilmen authorized Public Works Director Louis Goss to advertise for bids for removal of silt and sand from Colma Creek last week.

Councilmen also approved Goss' recommendation that the fill material dredged from the creek be given free to anyone who wishes to haul it away from the banks of the creek.

Cities Eye Programs

By GEORGE GOLDING

What cities can do about juvenile problems, or even whether anything needs to be done by cities, will be investigated by a committee of recreation directors and police chiefs in Northern San Mateo County.

One of the questions the group could check into, said Daly City Councilman Fran Pacelli who pushed the idea through the North County Council of Cities last week is whether there should be a "youth council" through which teen-agers could participate in civic activities.

Pacelli commented that a previous North County Youth Advisory Committee had withered, possibly from a lack of goals, and suggested the new committee could provide some comment on what action needs to be taken.

"Perhaps," he said after the meeting, "there should be a kind of inter-club council. Perhaps the young people need to be able to tell us what they need, or want."

"I think the recreation directors, and the police chiefs, are the ones most likely to know what is going on."

"Perhaps the cities need to do something like institute similar curfew laws, or provide dozens of new recreation leaders, or more swimming pools. This group should let us know."

Burlingame Mayor Werner Diederichsen said one of the most important questions to check was "whether we are using the full potential of our recreational facilities, school facilities as well as city."

Pacelli said the new group should report back "no later than January."

It would not be restricted to specific subjects, but would be left to determine what areas need to be probed.

North County Council members, meeting at the Green Hills Country Club in Millbrae, also agreed unanimously to support a reopening of study of the Southern Bay Crossing.

Chairman Pacelli and South San Francisco Councilman Frank Bertucelli asked that everyone join in the attempt to get Governor Reagan to look into the location of the proposed new crossing.

A bridge from the East Bay to Sierra Point in Northern San Mateo County would benefit all the Peninsula, Bertucelli pointed

First Action For N. County Gridiron Teams

Action on the North County's gridiron front will begin this week, with one contest scheduled for a home turf.

Westmoor will host Serra High in Daly City at 11 a.m. Saturday.

Crestmoor of San Bruno will travel to Burlingame for a night encounter Friday with El Camino of South San Francisco, while Half Moon Bay will meet Willis, up north Saturday night.

Jefferson High of Daly City, Oceana and Terra Nova of Pacifica and South San Francisco High will open their seasons next weekend.

ed out, and would solve traffic problems, not create new ones.

A more northerly crossing, as approved by Governor Brown's administration, he said, would only increase traffic jamming in San Francisco, and would hinder San Mateo County.

Members were assured by Councilman Robert McLennan of Brisbane, spokesman for the Park and Open Space Committee, that his group had investigated Crocker Land Company's plans for San Bruno Mountain and found them generally desirable.

"The proposal that San Mateo County could purchase San Bruno Mountain and make it an open space is a myth," he said. "I don't think this county will ever be rich enough."

McLennan said the Crocker people had indicated the price for the mountain would be in the neighborhood of $50,000,000.

"The plan to set the entire mountain aside as open space is just a dream," he said, "but Crocker is planning an 18-hole golf course and other areas for public recreation."

D.C. COUNCIL

Paving Pact Is Awarded

The Daly City council awarded a contract to the Lowrie Paving Company of South San Francisco for paving of Southgate and Sullivan avenues.

Of the six firms submitting bids on the project, Lowrie's bid of $81,210.79 was some $5,000 below the second low bid, according to city engineer Arthur Reschke.

Work was expected to get underway on the paving project immediately.

In other action, the council: ... Approved a use permit to Snow Ski Schools, for construction of a practice slope on Junipero Serra Boulevard. The request had been tabled for more than three weeks pending investigation of drainage facilities by the city engineer's office.

Several stipulations were attached to the approval including, a minimum of ten off-street parking spaces; adequate drainage for melting "snow," that the business not create a nuisance in the neighborhood.

... Approved revisions in the city's Rules and Regulations of the Classified Service.

... Approved business licenses for David K. Adams, 1404 Southgate Avenue (Service Station) and Ralph J. Harris,

Homes Looted As Families Vacationing

About $500 worth of jewelry was stolen from an Acacia Drive residence in San Bruno last week while the owners were away on vacation, police reported.

Officers said a ring, a man's watch, a gold tie clasp and other jewelry were taken from the home of Mrs. Lillian Eakan.

Entrance to the house was gained through an unlocked door.

Tools valued at $105 were taken from another San Bruno residence sometime Tuesday night, police said.

The power tools were taken from the Allen Drive residence of Robin S. Houge between 5 p.m. and 11:45 p.m.

Entrance to the house was gained through removing a sliding glass window.

More than $1,000 in cash, jewelry and household items were taken from the Antoinette Lane home of Marian Kaufman in South San Francisco Tuesday, police said.

Two watches, a television set, portable stereo, camera, electric razor and $231 in cash were taken from the house between 9 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, police said.

Freak Mishap In Daly City Kills Boy, 8

An eight-year-old Daly City boy was killed Saturday in a freak accident in front of his home by a pickup truck driven by a friend of the family.

Alan B. Roth, 110 Santa Paula Drive, died at Mary's Help Hospital from injuries received when he fell beneath a pickup truck he was "hitching" a ride on.

Police said the youth often jumped into the rear of Richard P. Vento's truck and rode part way down the street to his home.

The 25-year-old Vento, who lived near the victim, said he saw young Roth climb into the rear of the truck as he started backing the vehicle, but the boy vanished when he glanced to the rear a second time, moments later.

As Vento looked forward he saw the victim lying in the street, moaning.

The victim's father, Henry P. Roth, and Vento took the boy to the hospital where he died at 6:15 p.m., about an hour after admittance.

Parking Control Refused

San Bruno councilmen Monday declined to act upon a Traffic Safety Committee recommendation that the city assume control of parking regulation enforcement at the Crestmoor Plaza Shopping Center.

The shopping center owners, Consolidated Lands, Inc., have requested a "red zone" no parking regulation at the center.

Councilmen noted the ordinance change alone would cost the city about $200 for publication, and considerably more expense would be involved in enforcing the new regulations.

Councilman Neil Christal said it would probably be necessary to employ an extra policeman to patrol the area.

"Frankly," Mayor Maurice Hamilton said, "I am a little annoyed that the owners did not send a representative to this meeting to discuss the matter with us."

"We will consider the matter again when they take the time to come 'own here and tell us exactly what they want," Hamilton said.

In other business Monday, the council adopted a resolution awarding a contract for street resurfacing to the L. C. Smith Co.

The firm's bid of $54,396 was the lowest received on the project.

Another contract for construction of a parking lot at the city corporation yard was awarded to the Lowrie Paving Co., low bidder at $4,137.

A contract for a new diesel tractor was awarded to the Russell Co., at a low bid price of $3,125.

The council also authorized City Manager Gerard S. Vergeer to negotiate with the Consolidated Land Co. to pay the cost of relocating and enlarging sewer lines at the intersection of San Bruno Avenue and the proposed Freeway 280.

The State Highway Department will perform the work on the project at an estimated cost of $37,000, Vergeer said.

Councilmen voted to grant a 30-day extension of sick leave for Ronald G. Robinson, a fireman injured several weeks ago in an automobile accident, and Mayor Maurice Hamilton read proclamations naming September 21 "Postal Service Day" and September 30 "White Cane Day" in the city.

Daly City Beats State To a Budget

The Daly City council went along with city engineer Arthur Reschke's recommendations Monday and approved the 1967-68 gas tax budget - before the state gives it their nod.

In past years the budget, which totals some $500,000, was first submitted to the State and channeled back to the council for an official resolution earmarking the monies for the various projects.

This year Reschke advised the council to first adopt the resolution and forward the matter directly to the state thereby reflecting "confidence and positive thinking."

The budget includes maintenance of all streets in Daly City ($103,000); curbs, gutters, lighting on San Fernando Way ($40,700); resurfacing of Hillside Boulevard ($60,000 toward actual costs of some $200,000); improvements of intersection at Hillside and Knowles ($15,000 from city and $15,000 from state); extension of Hickey Boulevard through Chinese Cemetery between Skyline and Junipera Serra ($44,600 towards total $824,000).

Post-Times Grid Contest Is Under Way

The Post-Times' eleventh annual Football Contest begins a nine-week run today.

Cash prizes of $500 will be awarded, and each week 50 will be offered the contestant who can pick correctly the results of 15 collegiate gridiron games.

If no one has a perfect entry, the prize money will carry over to the following week, contest officials explained. The contestant with the most number of correct selections, however, will receive two tickets to the Stanford-California game.

If the cash winner also is a Times subscriber, he will win a 150 bonus award.

Official entry forms will appear each Tuesday and Wednesday in The Times and on Wednesdays in The Post.

provide heat for the entire plant. Bernicchi points out that next year the methane gases produced by the digester will be run through a converter, to furnish electrical power for the plant, making it completely self-sustaining.

And like the human stomach the digester can get "upset." When this occurs, the digester is administered a giant Alka Seltzer in the form of lime. Last year, when some unknown resident dumped a quantity of cleaning solvent into the system, the digester got an "upset stomach" and had to be given four tons of lime to settle it. "It took almost four months to get the digester back on its feet again," Bernicchi explained tongue-in-cheek. "There are no quick cures for the digester."

The Sanitation District is lacking one thing normally associated with such operations - smell.

From the exterior of the giant tanks, to the well-equipped laboratory where tests are conducted on inflow and outflow materials, the facility is spotless.

Presently, the facility is undergoing a First Phase expansion program which will enlarge office space for Bernicchi and his staff.

Bids for the $50,000-plus project are expected to be awarded in October.

The district plant is located within a stone's throw of one of Daly City's most desirable neighborhoods and a school, attesting to its acceptability in the community.

As a part of a "continuing public relations program" ("to enlighten the people"), Bernicchi has extended an invitation to citizens to tour the plant at any time.

ushered him and several other employees into the central office.

One of the men forced Berry to open the safe, which contained approximately $60,000 in cash from Friday's receipts, while the other tied the remaining workers to chairs in the office.

One of the men stood at the door and greeted four or five employees with a revolver as they arrived.

Arthur Beauchart, a security guard on the day shift, said he arrived at the store shortly after 8 a.m., and one of the armed men was waiting inside the door with a gun in his hand.

"I thought the guy was kidding for a minute," Beauchart said, "then he pushed the gun into my ribs and removed my pistol from the holster."

The terrorized employees, several of whom were women, watched as the robbers removed money from the safe and stuffed it into several brown paper bags. They left behind about $10,000 in coins in the safe, apparently because it was too heavy to carry.

The two men escaped in a late model "large, black sedan," and apparently evaded scores of police alerted in an all points bulletin.

Beauchart said one of the men was about five feet eight inches tall, and the other about six feet. Both were of average build.

Pacifica Sets Special Vote

Pacifica Mayor Grace McCarthy and members of the city council have decided to call a special election to fill the seat of resigning councilman James Fox.

The election was set November 14, to coincide with the special election to replace deceased congressman J. Arthur Younger.

Mayor McCarthy and the remaining three councilmen set the election after failing to agree upon an appointee for the post, vacated last month when Fox resigned in order to move to another city.

The council could have deliberated the appointment until September 15, but delaying the matter further would have made it impossible to hold the election in conjunction with the special congressional election.

"The election can be held at this time with only a nominal cost to the city," Mrs. McCarthy said.

Several names had been mentioned as potential appointees to the post, and the council held a number of personnel sessions last month in an attempt to decide upon a suitable replacement, but there was reportedly a "complete lack of agreement" among the councilmen.

About eight months remained in Fox's unexpired term at the time of his resignation last month.

LSD Experience To Be Told Club

The San Bruno-Millbrae Kiwanis Club will hear a talk on "Experiences With LSD" at their regular meeting Wednesday at the Blue Peacock Room in Millbrae.

Speaking will be Dolphin Lambert, a physicist for the Stanford Research Institute. He will be introduced by Program Chairman Rev. Neil Ashcraft.

Last Wednesday, September 6, the Kiwanians heard Richard

Watson, new Millbrae city administrator, describe plans for improving Millbrae. Projects he disclosed as being worked upon include development of the city's five neighborhood parks, erection of a fire department drill tower, and an access to Bayshore for North Millbrae. Next week's program chairman, for the September 20 meeting, will be noted Realtor Paul Vogel.

SSF Mayor Speaks Out On Southern Crossing

South San Francisco Mayor Patrick E. Ahern is joining Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan's fight to reopen the Southern Crossing issue.

Mayor Ahern advocates the Sierra Point - Roberts Landing route from the second bay bridge, instead of the India Basin route.

"The more logical place for the terminus would be Sierra Point in Brisbane, the border city between San Francisco County and San Mateo County," Ahern said in a letter to Gov. Ronald Reagan. "This choice would be $40 million cheaper than the India Basin terminus. It would also serve San Mateo County, San Francisco International Airport users, and relieve traffic congestion in San Francisco."

A paradox exists, according to Ahern. "I cannot understand how San Francisco can push for BART, whose purpose is to relieve traffic congestion, and at the same time, advocate a second and bay bridge terminus to dump thousands of cars per day into downtown streets."

Ahern added that the India Basin route was the favorite of former Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

"It is my opinion that former Governor Brown was prevailed upon by the representatives of certain interests in San Francisco, which caused the selection of the India Basin terminus instead of the bridge route between Sierra Point in Northern San Mateo County and Roberts Landing in Hayward, thereby exposing the taxpayers to from $400 million to $100 million increase in cost for the facility," Mayor Ahern said.

The Mayor of South San Francisco said he had asked the city's leaders at the August 25th meeting of the County Council of Mayors to appeal to the Governor to reopen the issue. The

Time to Prepare For You-Know-What

Santa in September? It has to be that way, so that the Red Cross will have time to fill and send a Christmas gift bag to every serviceman in Vietnam.

Red Cross regions in San Mateo County will pack and send approximately 5,000 of these gift bags to the men. The bags have been sewn by Red Cross volunteers, and, like "the stockings that were hung by the chimney with care..." in Clement Moore's old poem, they now need to be filled.

The Red Cross calls this project "Operation Shop Early," because everyone who wants to help has to shop well in advance of holiday time, long before tinselled store windows beckon. The gifts must be enroute by October 1, in order to reach the men by Christmas.

Gift bags will contain small items that the men can use immediately. Everything must be new, but need not be wrapped — that can be done at the Red Cross offices.

Suitable gifts include ball point pens, small vacuum-packed tins of candy or nuts, pocket sized games such as checkers, chess or playing cards, as well as plastic soap or toothbrush cases. Paper back books such as adventure stories, mysteries, westerns, science fiction and crossword puzzles are welcome. Donors may add greeting cards with their names and addresses to their gifts, also.

Last year, when "Operation Shop Early" was begun, thousands of letters poured back from grateful servicemen in Vietnam. The majority of the boys seemed to be happily surprised to be remembered by someone at home — someone they'd never even met.

Intersection Accident Hurts Three

A highway patrolman has recommended prosecution of a Pacifica woman as a result of a traffic accident Wednesday night in which three persons were injured.

The mishap occurred at 7:50 p.m., when a car driven by Mrs. Sheila E. Jensen, 48, a copywriter, of 316 Monterey Road, Pacifica, crashed into the rear of another car stopped for a red traffic light on Skyline Boulevard at Alameda Boulevard in Daly City. Patrolman T. E. Bickell reported.

Mrs. Jensen suffered facial cuts and possibly two broken legs. Her husband, Holger Jensen, 48, had face, head and neck cuts. Also injured was Arley Ben, 59, of 2571 Catalpa Way, San Bruno, an airlines mechanic, driver of the other car. He had a neck injury. All of the injured were taken to Mary's Help Hospital.

Bickell noted in his report that there was a nearly empty half-pint bottle of whiskey on the seat next to the driver.

D.C. Reports False Alarms

A rash of false alarms kept Daly City firemen scurrying about the Westlake area Friday and Saturday nights.

A spokesman for the fire department, noting that a group of "pranksters" apparently was roaming the region, said the firemen received five false box alarms Friday, and another six Saturday, between 11:40 p.m. and 12:10 a.m.

Youth, 14, Shot in Leg At Pacifica

A Pacifica boy was hospitalized Thursday afternoon with a gunshot wound of the right leg in a shooting incident which police said "might have been accidental."

Juvenile officers said 14-year-old Louis Benevenuto, 723 Moana Way, was shot in the home of another youth in the neighborhood about 4 p.m.

A 14-year-old boy reportedly did the shooting.

The Benevenuto youth is listed in good condition at Mary's Help Hospital.

Police said the shooting is still under investigation.

Two Men Attack SSF Youth

Hit From Behind With Tire Irons

A young service station attendant was beaten unconscious Sunday during a brutal strongarm robbery in South San Francisco.

Patrick Ramirez, 18, an employee at Mike's Shell Service, 375 South Spruce Avenue, is listed in satisfactory condition at Peninsula Hospital where he is recovering from a concussion.

Ramirez told police he was attacked by two men about 11:45 p.m. Sunday as he prepared to close the service station for the night.

The men, one of whom wore a halloween mask, attacked him from the rear with tire irons.

Ramirez was knocked unconscious, then tied to a chair in the service station office, police said.

He regained consciousness about an hour after the attack, and called out to passing motorists until an unidentified driver stopped and gave assistance.

About $500 in cash was taken from the cash register.

Bomb Scares; Restaurants Are Emptied in Daly City

Teams of Daly City police hurriedly emptied two popular restaurants early last Friday after they had received separate bomb threats.

At 1:45 a.m. the Lyons Restaurant on Alameda Boulevard evacuated some 13 customers after receiving a telephoned threat that a bomb had been "planted" under one of the seats and was set to explode "within ten minutes."

A search of the premises by police failed to uncover any device, a spokesman said.

Some ten minutes later, a similar threat was telephoned to Westlake Joes' Restaurant, also on Alameda Boulevard warning a bomb was hidden "somewhere in the building" and would explode in less than ten minutes.

Mrs. Anna Gemignani, night manager of the restaurant, said the call came in shortly before the 2 a.m. closing time and only three customers were in the building.

The customers and employees quickly rushed outside.

Another police team searching the building likewise failed to find any bomb.

Mrs. Gemignani told police the caller said "there's a bomb in your place . . . you'd better get the people out before it goes off — in less than ten minutes."

Police suspect the calls were made by a juvenile prankster and are continuing their investigation of both incidents.

Three Schools $250,000 Asked In Pacifica

Have New Principals

All three San Bruno High schools had new principals when they opened Wednesday and all began classes at different times.

At Crestmoor, George Kristovich, former Hillsdale High School assistant principal, took over the chief's chair, replacing David Studebaker. Studebaker is on sabbatical leave.

Classes at Crestmoor start at 8 a.m., conclude at 2:25 p.m.

Capuchino High's new principal is Ernest Hickson, who headed last year's Continuation School. Hickson replaced Dr. Fred Adams, who went to the San Mateo Union High School District headquarters as deputy director of the Educational Resources Center.

Capuchino opening time is 8:15 a.m. Classes end at 2:35 p.m.

Peninsula High, the District's continuation school located on former Tanforan Naval Base property has Paul Baldwin as principal. Baldwin is a former Capuchino vice principal for educational services.

Classes run from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The problems of busing numbers of students from as far away as Foster City is said to account for the different starting times.

Four County Winners At State Fair

Four residents of San Mateo County have been named winners in the hand-work division of the $2,660 home economics competition at the California State Fair, Sacramento.

As announced by Mrs. Archibald M. Mull, Jr., State Fair director in charge of women's activities, the top homemakers and their awards are:

Helen M. Douglas of San Bruno — Honorable mention, hand-embroidered picture (framed), $5.00.

Helen Hansen of Daly City — Honorable mention, hand quilting, $1.

Jean F. Low of Atherton — Honorable mention, hand-knitted sweater (women's), $1.

Mrs. D. M. Worsfold of San Mateo — Second, hand-knitted infant set, $5.

More than 600 Golden State competitors are exhibiting their baked and canned goods, needlework and handwork during the Fair's 12-day run. All entries are on display in the Woman's Building from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily.

COMFORTABLE CHAIRS USED TO BE UGLY

In the old days, it was often true that if you wanted a comfortable chair, you had to settle for an ugly chair.

But, today's furniture manufacturers have changed that completely.

In furniture history, there never has been a time when such a great variety of beautiful and comfortable chairs have been offered to the public as we have now.

You owe it to yourself—and your family—to see all the new chair ideas.

For the man in your house, you may want to look over some new, comfortable lounge chairs. You know, someone once said the best tranquilizer of all for the tired businessman is a chair he can come home to, stretch out on, relax and forget his business problems every day of his life. These chairs are more practical and beautiful than ever before.

And the lady of the house is entitled to a comfortable chair, too. She will want a more feminine type chair and one that will harmonize with the furnishings in the rest of the room. There's a great variety right now.

If you haven't gone "chair shopping" recently, this is a good time to see all the new chairs that are both beautiful to look at and comfortable to sit in. We extend a cordial invitation for you to come in.

The widow of a motorcyclist killed at a Pacifica intersection where city officials have been attempting for years to get the state to place a traffic signal filed suit against the state last week in Superior Court asking $250,000 for the alleged wrongful death of her husband.

Mrs. Carol A. Allen, 1138 Manzanita Drive, filed the suit on behalf of herself and her daughter, Francesca Ann Allen, 1, and her son, Richard Carl Waltz, 6.

Mrs. Allen's husband, Frank, was fatally injured last October 29 when his motorcycle collided with a car on Cabrillo Highway at Hewitt Avenue, known as "Rockaway intersection." Allen died November 11 in Mary's Help Hospital of head injuries.

Allen was southbound on the highway when his motorcycle collided with a northbound car driven by Mrs. Thelma M. Coffey, who was making a left turn.

Pacificans have been seeking to have the state install a signal at the location, where there is a left turn lane, but no traffic light.

The accident prompted renewed efforts for a signal, with the result that the state has moved up its scheduled installation of a signal from 1968 or 1969 to late this year.

In the suit, filed by San Francisco attorney Harvey Hereford, it is alleged that the state was responsible for "placement and installation of painted road markings, stop signs and other warnings and regulatory devices in such a negligent manner as to cause the motorcycle to collide with the auto."

2 Firms Ask For Licenses

Two companies have requested business licenses from Daly City.

David K. Adams (Adam's Mobil Station), 1404 Southgate Avenue, and Ralph J. Harris (Real Estate), 7375 Mission Street, submitted requests for licenses.

The council was expected to act on the requests at next Monday's regular meeting.

Gunmen Flee After Holdup

Two gunmen held up the Phillips 66 Service Station in Daly City, Thursday, and fled on foot after taking some $100 from the cash register.

Attendant Dick A. Ross said the pair walked into the station shortly after 3:30 and ordered him to "open the cash drawer."

Squirrel Bite Leads to A Library Show

Presently on display in the juvenile department showcase at the South San Francisco public library, Grand Avenue, is a display of miniature cars and buildings belonging to Brian Yarberry.

In June of 1963, Brian was bitten by a squirrel, and underwent a series of 14 daily inoculations to prevent rabies.

After each of the inoculations, his mother gave him a miniature car. This started a hobby which today consists of over 100 cars and various buildings, some of which are on display.

Also on display in the juvenile department showcase are two collections of models. Robert Ferrario has a display of six U.S. Naval ships made of gray plastic and assembled from kits.

Area Residents Are Hurt in Accidents

A grinding broadside crash in which a man, so heavy that it took five men to place him on an ambulance gurney, was thrown from a rear seat into the front windshield injured six men on the Candlestick Point causeway early last Friday morning, the Highway Patrol reported.

The accident occurred shortly after 2 a.m., Highway Patrolman Daryl G. Heath reported, when a vehicle driven by Milton Peter Anninos, 51, a salesman of 98 Canterbury Avenue, Daly City, apparently changed lanes and was struck by another northbound vehicle driven by John Steven Solemine, 18, of San Francisco.

Both drivers and four passengers in Solemine's car were taken to Peninsula Hospital. One,

Edward T. Kenney, 20, of San Francisco, was thrown from the rear seat into the windshield.

Highway patrolmen said it took three of them plus two ambulance attendants to remove Kenney from the wrecked car and place him on a gurney.

Also injured were Lyn D. Robinson, 20; Daniel F. Silva, 21, and Dennis Lee Jenkins, 18, all of San Francisco.

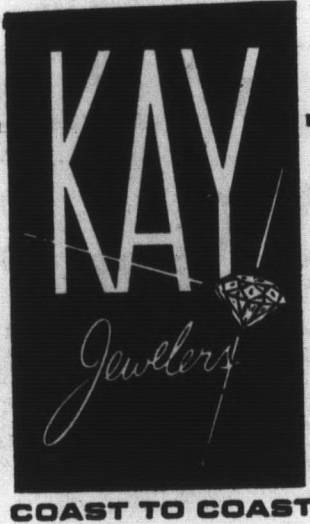

A Pacifica woman was reported seriously injured when her husband, William Hurst Bennett, 52, an auto repairman of 345 Third Avenue, Pacifica, lost control of his car after a front tire blew out on Cabrillo Highway north of Linda Mar Boulevard in Pacifica shortly before 2 p.m. yesterday. The auto struck the side of a hill.

Taken to Mary's Help Hospital in Daly City were Bennett and his wife, Mary.

Anninos, Solomine, and Kenney were admitted to Peninsula Hospital; Anninos suffering neck and back injuries, Solomine suffering a compound fracture of the left arm, and Kenney suffering a fractured right leg and head injuries. All were said to be recovering satisfactorily.

OIL CHANGING

An old rule but one worth repeating — when changing oil in your car, be sure the engine is warm so that the oil will be hot when drained from the crankcase. This enables you to derive the maximum benefit from an oil change.

Distressing Report On Drug Use by Youth

ADVICE to parents to "relax some about the particular situation of school children's experimenting with drugs," offered last week by a subcommittee of the Narcotics Inquiry Committee of the San Mateo County Juvenile Justice Commission, will strike most parents — just as it strikes this newspaper — as extraordinarily bad advice. In fact, it is stupid in that it virtually encourages our youth to experiment with drugs.

Furthermore, it is directly contrary to the protective instincts of all parents. What parents worthy of the name could possibly "relax" when their child is in deadly peril of ruining his life?

The drug evil is centuries old and its history is unrelievedly vicious, over and over repeating a cycle of people trapped or tricked into addiction that forces them into crime to find the money to buy the drugs that they need more and more. It is common knowledge that even the mildest experimenting with drugs can, and often does, lead to addiction and ultimate ruin. Ask any law enforcement officer, or view the motion picture on LSD which has been released by the San Mateo High School District, and you will agree that any experimenting with drugs is inviting the ruining of a life.

Parents know this and the very thought that their children are in danger of such a fate rightly fills them with horror. Telling them to "relax" in the face of such danger offends common sense.

The committee has treated our youth as so many objects in a sociological laboratory. To parents their children are their own beloved bound by the closest of ties—the children for whom they hope as well as fear.

No true parents will ever relax in safeguarding their young from known evil. The report which advised them to relax is, in our view, completely irresponsible.

North Will Decide?

YOU CAN'T KEEP A GOOD MAN down. At least not for long. A series of Labor Day celebrations accounted for this column (along with several others) not appearing in the last issue of THE POST. Nuf said.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT — If Robert Vaughn comes to the county to campaign for Edward Keating against The Hawks, will Grace Kelly come over to support Monaco Attorney Daniel Monaco? ... And several persons on the local political scene (including McRobert Stewart and Robert Hunter) say the North County will "decide" the upcoming Congressional election. These gentlemen claim, the "Silk Stocking Belt" will be split up so bad that a unified North End will turn the tide of political events. Why not? Ask supervisor Bob St. Clair what the voters in the Outback can do.

MYSTERY OF THE WEEK — What happened to the request of Ross Schendel and Mario Capri for construction of a car wash on a C-2 lot off Hillside Boulevard.

The business partners are currently in litigation with the city over another (competitor's) car wash at the corner of Market and Hillside and it appears the City isn't about to forget this fact.

THE SITUATION IN BRISBANE is becoming more muddled everyday thanks to emerging organizations, latest of which is the Action for Better Government, led by Dr. S. J. Guardino — a strong opponent of the garbage dump, among other things. Exactly who is suing whom for what and why has become confusing to "outsiders" who express complete bewilderment at the mere mention of the name Brisbane. The happiest person these days in Brisbane is Mayor Dale With — he's planning a trip to Brisbane, Australia.

In a recent news release the A.B.G. accused the Sanitary Land Fill Company of everything from tearing down San Bruno mountain to provide fill for the airport expansion, to slaughtering seagulls "as there were thousands being on the old dump, and now we don't see a one."

'Circus Not Like the Old Days' 'Feeling of Sorrow'

By FRANK LAPIERRE

We went to the circus the other night — the first time in 25 years, give or take a couple of months.

It just wasn't the same as the Old Days. No siree!

A feeling of sorrow flooded over us as we watched P. T. Barnum's creation unfold before us in the Cow Palace, a sorrow for all the little tykes in the audience that had never been to a REAL circus.

Certainly, this couldn't be the real McCoy, because it was more fact than fake and the late P. T. Barnum would never have stooped so low as to give the "suckers" (one born every minute) the real thing. His world was fake — right from the march-on to the final parade and on out to the sideshows.

We sat in the comfortable new chairs at the Palace and remembered the tent. That great expanse of smelly canvas pulled to its three towering, banner-decorated peaks by huge gray elephants, while roustabouts hammered stakes into place around its mammoth exterior; the hard wooden bleachers hastily thrown up for the capacity crowds of "children of all ages," and the fragrant sawdust that was scattered over the earthen floor.

YOU HAD! to wind your way down a narrow corridor of canvas leading to the Big Top. Down along the alleyway with its colorful posters enticing young and old alike to step inside and see "Hilda, the Bearded Woman," or "Jo Jo The Dog-Faced Boy." The barkers all trying to outshout each other in front of their attractions: "Step Right in—only one-tenth, I said one-tenth of a single dollar. Yessiree, you step inside and you take your chances. Uncle, it's the Greatest Show on Earth."

There are no more sideshows, or tent, or sawdust.

John Ringling North — the present owner — claims people don't want to see sideshows anymore, tents cost too much money, and sawdust isn't needed inside a building.

Mr. North claims that people don't want a lot of things in the circus anymore, and he has everything figured out down to the smallest part of a dollar — one-tenth of a dollar, in fact.

IN THE "Old Days" the elephants were staked out behind the tents and a kid could earn his way into the show by scrubbing the elephants down and watering them. And those huge beasts truly earned their keep when it came time to put up and tear down the tents.

We remembered when the circus came to town. There was a parade from the railroad yards to the circus grounds — at least that's what we called the big open field that was transformed overnight into a gaudy array of banners, posters, clowns, tents and animal cages.

They even had a caliope on a wagon pulled by a team of horses.

Mr. North cut that out too, along with some of the wild animal acts.

Some people blamed the tragic Hartford (Conn.) fire, which killed so many circus-goers, for the discontinued use of the Big Top, but others say that just isn't so because they have had several tents since that time. Truth is: less men are needed, less time is used and less storage space required since the circus "moved inside."

THE CIRCUS just isn't the same anymore — at least not to us. Perhaps it is to the kids nowadays, but not to us. They don't know any other type of circus and they have never smelled the sawdust or sat on hard wooden bleachers for more than two hours while ferocious animals (instead of a few fat peaceul Bengal tigers) roared and clawed the air over a trainer's head. Maybe it's true that today's kids would rather see a couple of perfumed poodles doing rollovers. Not us!

Give us the old circus, the real circus with its smells and false fronts and clowns that meandered through the audience making little children laugh with their antics.

WE WATCHED the clowns restrict their movements to the main floor and ignore (for the most part) the spectators.

And we thought back to those long ago days when Emmett Kelly, the sad-faced clown with the loud paddle, rambled through the bleachers and made kids laugh long and loud — many for the first time. Kelly genuinely loved kids. What happened to those days, those clowns??

Today they have tired-looking girls tiredly march out in "salutes" to this country or that. The kids couldn't care less.

Birth Pangs

Allan Sherman used to be a roly-poly, jovial, cherubic comedian. At his opening recently at the hungry i, he was nervous, pale, tense and kept forgetting the words of the songs.

But he had good cause. He's giving birth to a Broadway musical in November and the pains are already beginning.

"I wrote one 20 years ago called 'The Golden Touch' which was only done in summer stock. Other areas of show business have been so lucrative for me, I never got around to writing a second one," the round-faced performer explained with a wan smile.

Besides club dates, "other areas" meant record albums and television appearances, which made him famous.

"I started at a million and a half albums, so the only way to go was down. Since that time, I've done some television directing and summer stock. I'm nervous tonight because it's the first time I've sung these songs in public. Night before last I was appearing in Lancaster, Pa., with the old routines and some of the lyrics I've just freshly written and not memorized yet."

The name of the show is tentatively set as "Birth Is a Coward's Way Out." A publisher has bought the score but Sherman has only written 20 pages of the book.

He describes it as an odyssey of a plain man around 40 who is looking for a way to live and finds the old values are the best. The lead character is going through a "male menopause." He finds that his unmarried daughter is pregnant, his son is a dropout and he says to his wife, look, let's get out before it's too late. He seeks truth and beauty among the hippies, the young people, the experts, philosophers and then finds the ultimate answer within himself.

THE SONGS HE'S ALREADY WRITTEN, such as "Down the Drain," "Juggling" and "Gimme a Cause," are clever, in the same rhyming vein as his former popular ditties. But somehow they all sound like "Fiddler on the Roof" to me, although the music is being Albert Hague, who did "Redhead" and "Plain and Fancy."

When that chore is out of the way, Sherman plans to embark on another lyric writing assignment, this time for "America Hurrah" producer Stephanie Sills on a musical called "Impeach Art Buchwald" and based on his columns.

ONE OF THE SONGS HE SINGS during his current club date, and one that gets the biggest laugh is about Ronald Reagan. It is the only one in his repertoire he didn't write himself. Sung to the tune of "There's No Business Like Show Business," it pokes fun at the governorship and we asked him if it reflected his feeling about the former show business colleague.

"Let's just say I didn't vote for him and wouldn't if he runs again. I keep waiting for an actor to get into politics who isn't 'at liberty.' I was once asked to run for an office in Beverly Hills but I was too busy and making too much money at the time. If an actor comes along and gives up a half million dollars a year to run for something, it will mean something."

With that he mopped his brow, wet his lips, clasped his hands and looked glum. He perked up a little when asked if he'd appear in his own show.

"Only if they ask me. Jason Robards would be perfect. After all, he can sing as well as me." Maybe success in a new field will bring back the jocular and gay comedian who brought us some of the best laughs of the past years.

The Stout Set

Some years ago, two investigators at Iowa State College reported an attempt to check the theory that overweight is a matter of psychology. They studied over 100 girls, dividing them into two groups: those who had been distinctly fat for at least three years and those of normal weight.

When comparisons were made the fat girls showed no difference as a group. Their schoolwork, their stability, their sexual attitudes were indistinguishable from those of the slender girls.

In fact, the experimenters could find only one definite difference between the groups. The parents of the fat girls were, on the average, markedly stouter than the parents of the girls of normal weight.

EARLIER STUDIES have shown that only 10 per cent of the children of parents of normal weight grow fat. But when one of the parents is fat, 50 per cent of the children tend to be fat. When both parents are fat, 80 per cent of their children will share the same fate. This report begins an article that is certainly worth reading in Dr. Isaac Asimov's new book "Is Anyone There." It is a book of contemporary thought and good advice by a highly educated yet popular writer.

Of LSD, for example, the author writes, "Since none of us know just how firm some crucial part of our chemical fabric might be, using LSD without the greatest of professional care is a kind of mental Russian roulette. It is an invitation to temporary insanity for all — and possibly permanent insanity for some."

Little Homesteading Land

Advertising still appears which states or implies that the U.S. government has public land available for homesteading — either free or for as little as $1 an acre.

The Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior has published the following information in answer to the many inquiries:

"There is no free Government land, nor does the Government sell land for less than its fair market value. Although the Homestead Act of 1862 is still in effect, you have little chance of homesteading. Almost all good agricultural land is now in private ownership. Farming on public domain land in the West generally depends on irrigation water. Costs of getting rights to underground water and sinking a well are high. Rules governing homesteading are statutory and investment in time and money could run more than the cost of a farm bought on the open market."

SINCE 1862, people have earned more than 1,400,000 homesteads on more than 247 million acres of what was once public domain. About 460 million acres remain today, 290 million acres in Alaska, which is practically all public domain.

The remaining 170 million acres, almost all in western states, are considered unsuitable for farming. There are no public domain lands in Hawaii.

Under Alaska regulations, State lands up to 640 acres may be homesteaded. The land, which must be classified as suitable for agricultural purposes, is sold at public auction to the highest bidder who must be 19 years old. The land can be purchased or homesteaded on contract by paying 10 per cent down and the balance paid over a period of 9 years. Annual payments in cash or certain improvements can be applied as credit to the annual payments. Residence for a specified time is not required.

Federal homesteading in Alaska is difficult. Applicants must be 21 years old or the head of a household to qualify for a 160 acre entry. More than one-third of a million acres have been transferred to private ownership under the Homestead Act but few full-time farms are supporting families. Only 22,000 acres of commercial croplands have been developed in Alaska.

IF A TRACT of public domain land is found outside of Alaska the land must meet the following specific requirements:

- (1) Be suitable for agricultural purposes and for development as a home and farm.
- (2) The anticipated return from agricultural use must be enough to support the residents.
- (3) Land may be classified for homestead entry only if rainfall is adequate or sufficient irrigation water exists.

LE PACINI

New Kids' League Appears 'Permanent'

Jim Davis, the ex-Cub, Card and Giant southpaw from Daly City who took enough time out from his athletic supply business this past season to lead the Daly City entry in the north Peninsula Joe Dimaggio League to the state finals, thinks the hastily but deftly organized new kid league is going to be a permanent fixture.

"The Dimaggio League is excellent," says the former knuckleballer. "I was really impressed. It was tremendously well organized, especially considering the fact that it was really put together on relatively short notice after Charley Ellis of San Francisco got the idea for it."

"It's also loaded with talent. The scouts really hung around." And that, of course, is the name of the game. The Dimaggio League provides a better chance, in a day when sandlot and semi-pro ball is at a low ebb, for the boy who has graduated from the Babe Ruth League to showcase himself.

It's an awkward age for the kid who loves baseball. If he's still in high school, it's a long wait before the next season, and a long summer, too. If he's out of school, it gives him a chance to stay sharp until he's either signed (if he wants to go pro) or starts college.

Fifteen men are carried on the roster. There can be five 18 year olds, which is the maximum age, and must be at least two 16's, which is the minimum age.

DAVIS ADMITS that his team was put together rather haphazardly, but with an overall 18-4 record, who can argue with methods.

"It was all word of mouth," says Jim. "When I was asked to organize a team, we put the word out among the kids that we were going to have tryouts at Marchbank, and the kids who showed were the ones we took."

"We got five 18 years olds whose old high school teams were entered as units and which didn't want to use them because they wouldn't be returning and would thus sort of upset the school's building program."

But Davis' team, sponsored by the PAL and the Philadelphia Phillies, had no need to fret about such things, and his 18 year olds, who just wanted a chance to play ball, were the backbone of a team which drew from five different schools, including two from San Francisco — Balboa and Riorden (the boys reside in Daly City).

Jim's son, an infielder from Riorden, batted .320 leading off and started many rallies. Catcher Ron Beall of South City handled the backstop chores like a pro, and centerfielder Len Hatton of Jefferson was the team's second leading hitter (.400) and turned out to be one of the league's most promising pro prospects.

He'll be playing for the Phillies this winter in the Rookie League, and was sought after by two other major league teams whose scouts saw him only in the state finals tournament.

ANOTHER FINE pro prospect who developed was left-handed pitcher Joe Skarr, the boy from Balboa. He pitched four league games and hurled four shutouts, allowing a total of only 12 hits.

His masterpiece was against the San Bruno club, whose starting lineup boasted eight all-league high school stars. Joe three-hit them.

Davis had great pitching, which must at least in part be attributed to the fact that Davis himself — and we know this personally from having worked with him in the annual Terra Nova baseball clinic — is a fine pitching coach of young players.

Besides Skarr, he had Bill Fischer of Jefferson High, who Davis termed "the team's most improved player," and Riorden southpaw Bob Nolan, who was discovered at a tender age out of St. Cecilia's by league treasurer Rich Brewer when the Daly City policeman was coaching PAL baseball teams. Only 16, Bob's considered a good pro prospect.

Hatton and Jim, Jr., weren't the only hitters on the finely balanced squad. Westmoor's Gregagar hit .420 and infielder Ken Reitz (kid brother of Roy, who just retired from the Giant farm system) hit .375.

Besides Hatton, three others off Davis' roster will be playing Rookie League ball this winter: Jim, Jr. and Skarr for the Phillies, and Reitz for the Giants.

Things look good for the Daly City Dimaggios next year says Davis. Aside from the 18 year olds, almost all of the team will be returning.

And that includes Davis and his coaches, Joe Pedroni and Jay Flynn.

HISTORICAL NOTE:

For those of you who enjoy reading significance into historical parallels:

Stan Musial, a Pole, didn't become a long ball threat until the year when he was 27 years old, in 1948. That season he hit 39 homers. His previous highs had been 19 and 16, hit the two years prior to '48. Already considered a great hitter, it wasn't felt, however, that at 6 feet, 180 pounds, he had the physique to be a consistent long ball threat. Although that 39 was to be his high water mark, he went on to hit 30 plus five more times.

Carl Yastrzemski, another left handed hitting, 6 foot, 180 pound Pole, is 27 years old this season, and currently is leading the majors in homers, flirting with the 40 mark at this writing. Aside from his sophomore year, when he slugged out 19, his two previous highs were 20 and 16, and hit in the two seasons prior to '67.

A note from Jim Davis about archery (a subject upon which we — along with Davis — will dwell at length in a future column). Some archery clubs having "golfing" tournaments; that is, playing golf by using a bow for a club and an arrow for a ball.

Bet when somebody yells "fore" in that game they really listen to him.

TAG END:

Believe this or not: At this writing, the Giants are third in the National League in doubleplays, tied for fourth in the entire major leagues.

Serra Bowl

BY BETTY LOU OSTERGREN

With the winter leagues taking form and summer leagues ending the high scores are still rolling in. The 520-530 Trios went out in high fashion with John Heza setting the pace with games of 191-245-248-256-940 series, followed by Billy Mack who shot 244-189-261-202-894, and Dusty Blair turned in an 862 series with games of 208-207-238-204.

High game for the league went to Dom Papia with a big 268, that's what we've got to look forward to in the coming season all high scores. On the Jubilee 11 Ken Hauser turned in a nice 576 and Al Ferrey took second with a 556 series. High for the ladies was 479 turned in by Deedee Damato.

The summer Jubilee League No. 1 ended last night with the top four teams qualifying for the Nor-Cal B.P.A. Bowlers Jubilee tournament. It will be held on October 7th and 8th at Blackstone Bowl in Fresno. First place was team No. 9 Apparel City, second place team No. 2 sunbeam Lighting Co., 3rd team No. 7 Webb's Restaurant, 4th team No. 12 California Trophy.

A great big congratulations to all four teams and good luck in Fresno. High series last night were rolled by Bob Guillery 159, 234-188 for a 581, followed by Charles Denning with games of 160-196-177 for 533 series. High for the ladies was Luvi Leon who had 187-145-174 for a nice 506 series. Speaking of the ladies the Domestic Engineers league ended with the "Peewees" winning first place.

On the Feather Dusters "Yo-Yo" Stevenson took high series for the day with a big 49e series although her team "Millies Lillies" ended up in last place. First place went to the Tiger-a-go-go's which isn't surprising because those girls really get in and bowl.

Just a reminder to all you money bowlers—Serra Bowl is now running a weekly Hdcp. Doubles Tournament, guaranteed $125.00 first place, $75.00 second, and $50.00 third place, ending every Sunday night. The first two weeks proved to be a big success with a lot of entries, the cost is $7.50 per couple.

The first week's winners were Vicki Kennedy and Mike Mae who had 1334, 2nd place Jim Hurst and Bob Mather who shot 1259 and 3rd place was Oliver Francis and Bill Hayes Sr. with 1250. Second week winners are Dave Gluck and Fred Blackburn 1318, Paul Kabash and Rich Kabash 1303, Paul Kabash and Fred Kabash 1286, Marian Mann and Jerry Krebs 1283. Entries will be taken and bowled whenever lanes are available, so sign-up now.

I would like to announce to one and all Serra Bowl is now in the process of opening their own "Pro Shop." It will be run by Rick Tong who most of you know from Downtown Bowl. I will give you a definite date in the near future.

Serra Bowl would like to say "WELCOME" to a new league that started last night. It is the Bankers League (most impressive don't you think?) There were also some very impressive scores — shall we say ADDED UP. Bowling for the 1st National Bank of Daly City, Ev Termello led the way when he bombed games of 201-206-209 for a big 616 series, followed by Dave Bellis from United Calif. No. 2 who had 200-231-163 and a 594 series, also Deanne Henley with a nice 202 game and a 541 series.

Not to be left out Wells Fargo No. 1 tallied up some nice figures starting with Frank Loureiro 171-186-200-557, then Jim McCarthy 173-200-179-552 and Walt Ruff 161-214-163-538. Back for their 2nd year, also starting last night is the Printing Industry league.

Leading off Don Fricke had high series with games of 176-200-181 for 557. Not too far behind was Bob Kral with a 212 game and 542 series and Paul Dove with 196-170-165-531.

Don't forget now we are still taking sign up's for winter league. For night leagues call 922-3444 and ask for Shirley Scammon or John Heza or Dick Munroe. If any of you housewives haven't signed up for a day league just call and ask for Betty Lou or Dottie Millard.

Slow-Pitch Sept. 18-22

Westlake Bowl

By JAMES GREALISH

Queen of the Blue Chip bowlers last week was Cele Murray who took home a total of 2,050 stamps in the Thursday afternoon Blue Chip Bonanza. Ron Tognoli came in a close second as she won 1940 stamps while Samantha Jones won 1040 to take third place honors.

The three free instruction classes are proving quite popular as the ladies are adjusting to children being in school, vacations being over, etc. There are still openings in the classes which are held Sundays at 9:30 a.m., Mondays at 10:00 a.m. and Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m. The series of classes will cover all phases of bowling and in addition to teaching beginners, will be a "refresher course" for those who are returning to bowling.

The Westlake "Travelers" will hit the road September 16 when sixteen teams of four members each will journey to Bagdad Bowl to take part in the tournament honoring Bowling Hall of fame member Elmer "Red" Irwin. Anyone interested in joining the group may register with Jim Leatherberry at 756-5777.

THE BROADMOOR PRESBYTERIAN team finished third in the recently completed North County church softball league season. Sponsored by the San Francisco Council of Churches, the league included 12 teams. Left to right, Broadmoor assistant coach Jack Peebles, coach Eugene Amato, pitcher Tim Tweedie and catcher Dave Peebles took over the end of season standings.

D.C. Gymnastic Program Set

The Daly City Recreation Department's fall girl's gymnastics program will begin Thursday at 3:30 p.m. at the War Memorial Building.

Open to girls seven years of age and older, the gymnastics classes will be offered Monday through Friday 3:30 p.m.-5 p.m. each day.

Instruction will be offered in tumbling, free exercise, balance beam, uneven parallel bars, vaulting and rhythmic Swedish and Danish gymnastics.

Girls interested in participating should register for the program Thursday, recreation department spokesmen said.

Knights Honor 'Bud' Capurro, Bob Hale

Marian Council No. 3773, Knights of Columbus, has announced the awarding of Man of the Month and Merit Awards to Charter Grand Knight Joseph (Bud) Capurro.

Capurro has held many offices in the Knights, including those of Past Faithful Navigator and District Deputy. Most recently, he has held the office of Advocate, whose job is to advise the younger members of the council on disputed issues.

Capurro, who has lived in Daly City for several years, has an insurance agency.

Bob Hale of Pacifica recently was honored by the Council as the outgoing Grand Knight.

He was guest of honor at a Past Grand Knight dinner at the Fort Mason Officers Club. Forty persons attended, including District Deputy Richard Ertola, who invested Bob in his permanent office of Past Grand Knight.

Bob is a long-time resident of Pacifica and was a member of the school board for many years.

Faithful Navigator Al Cortez, with members of Archbishop Alemany General Assembly (4th Degree Knights of Columbus) Honor Guard, attended the Italian Federation Annual Field Day Mass.

The Mass was held at Bay Meadows.

This is the largest field Mass held in the area.

D.C. Community Chorus

A hearty word of congratulations to the Daly City Community Chorus.

Mrs. Shirley Spence, the new publicity chairman for the musical aggregation, reports that the chorus, accompanied by Ray Hackett's Orchestra, will be performing October 30 for the Grand National Livestock Exposition at the Cow Palace.

The group has been working hard all summer long to increase and improve its repertoire and so everyone is eagerly looking forward to performing before the large Cow Palace audience.

Dennis Desjardins, director of the chorus, has been absent from recent rehearsals, taking a rest and recuperating from a bit of ill health, but accompanist Mrs. Janet Holden, has been filling in to keep the rehearsal schedule intact and the voices all in tune.

According to Mrs. Spence, last week's meeting wound up the summer program with an informal songfest. All the members were invited to bring their favorite selection and give a solo performance. Mrs. Lori Smith, Mrs. Mary King, Frank Benjamin, Mrs. Betty Toft, Mrs. Janet Gillmore, Mrs. Lee Puddy, Mrs. Marge Sordahl, Dick Neves, Mrs. Adela Zamora, Mrs. Barbara Schori, Joe Devichi and Mrs. Connie Oddy, all sang with Mrs. Holden doing the accompanist's chores. The comedy hit of the evening, however, was Mrs. Grace Moore's routine which she did while playing her own westernized accompaniment, Mrs. Spence said.

Several Beta Sigma Phi chapters celebrated Beginning Day with a dinner dance at the El Portal Restaurant in San Francisco, recently.

Mrs. Virginia Sharp was the chairman of the event and Mrs. Stella Hayes, Mrs. Carol Johnson and Mrs. Vonnice Berg assisted her with the arrangements. Members of chapters Alpha Alpha Omicron, Phi Epsilon Kappa, Tau Gamma and Xi Lambda Phi took part in the event which was sponsored by the Pacifica City Council of Beta Sigma Phi.

Members of the Ignatius Guild of St. Ignatius High school are issuing an appeal for donations of interesting and desirable items to be used for a Silent Auction being planned by the group for Sunday, November 12.

According to Mrs. Anthony Formosa, publicity chairman, friends of the guild will arrange for pick up of donations and anyone wishing more information is urged to call Mrs. E. L. Sarlatte, the general chairman of the auction, 564-8763. Mrs. Angelo Mazza is the co-chairman.

Mrs. Sarlatte emphasized that all proceeds of the auction will be used to benefit the St. Ignatius High school building program.

The Italian influence will dominate the decorations, favors, colors and programs when the members of Mary's Help Hospital Guild present "Il Cuore della Moda" on October 18 in the Venetian Room of the Fairmont Hotel, according to Mrs. Shelly Mangini, publicity chairman for the guild.

Mrs. Clifton West, chairman of the fashion event, indicates all proceeds from this benefit will be utilized for the construction of a specialized cardiac unit for the intensive care section of the hospital. Because of the nature of their goal, the members decided upon the heart theme, combined it with a dash of Italian flavoring and came up with "Il Cuore della Moda" — The Heart of Fashion.

Assisting Mrs. West are Mrs. Paul Neagle, co-chairman; Mrs. Andrew Ryan, and Mrs. John Swendsen, reservations; Mrs. Frank Lawson and Mrs. Fred Watson, investment; Mrs. Duncan Hodel and Mrs. Walter Dahl, door prizes; Mrs. Alexander Petrelli, invitations; Mrs. Ray Forcina and Mrs. Frank Falconi, decorations; Mrs. Frank Kelechava, models; Mrs. Charles Schroth, favors; Mrs. Arthur Sullivan hostesses, Mrs. Mangini, publicity and Mrs. Robert Martini, treasurer.

Reservations are already available and may be made by calling Mrs. Ryan, 931-1475 or Mrs. Swendsen, 334-0194, Mrs. Mangini reports.

Today is the day that the Westlake Senior Citizens begin their two day tour of Reno and Sparks, according to word from Willard Wagner, treasurer and publicity man for the group.

It is going to be a month of traveling for the seniors who are all set to tour the General Mills Betty Crocker plant next Wednesday following a picnic luncheon in the Lodi Park. On next month's agenda is the annual Bazaar with Mrs. Hazel Wagner and Mrs. Clara Schumann in charge of the event which will feature home made aprons, pillow cases, pillows, tea towels and a variety of tasty goodies.

The Age of Day Dreaming will be the featured film in the Cabrillo School Friday evening as the SERIES "Youth's Struggle for Identity" is launched by the members of the Pacific Community Cultural Coordinating Committee.

Tickets, costing $3, and entitling holders to attend all four film and discussion sessions, are on sale at the Park, Beach and Recreation Department office in the City Hall, at the Dal Pac Art Gallery and at the College of San Mateo box office.

Members of the Pacifica Federated Women's Club will hold their annual membership tea Sunday afternoon in the home of membership chairman Mrs. Rose Lazzaro and then initiate the fall series of meeting on Tuesday evening, according to Mrs. Helem Minshew, publicity chairman.

The Tuesday night gathering, to be held in Terra Nova High school, will be highlighted by initiation ceremonies and a silent auction.

The first meeting of Beta Sigma Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority was held last week in the home of Mrs. Yvonne Carr of San Bruno.

Mrs. Yvanna Yates of San Mateo, the chapter vice president, presided over the session in the absence of Mrs. Ed Kuehnhoft, president, who was enjoying a vacation, according to Mrs. Harriet Mitterman, publicity chairman.

NELL NORTON

(Sugar 'n Spice)

Kitchen's Kidless

Good morning, good cooks.

Heigh-ho and away they go, our darlings are back in school. How will we stand the silence? The phone will be open for incoming calls, the television set will cool down for the first time in months, the phonograph will stop its dizzy turns and the refrigerator door will remain closed for more than 15 minutes at a time. The joy of it all!

Let's be honest, we'll miss all that happy hubbub. The years when our children make home their base of activities are really the happy years, it's unfortunate if we don't realize this and enjoy it while we can.

Now that school lunches and after school snacks are going to be a daily affair, let's start off "our vacation" with some baking. I hope you enjoy baking as much as I do, for it really is a vacation for me to mix and fix cookies and cakes.

PEEK-A-BOO OATMEAL COOKIES

2½ cups sifted flour
1 teas. soda
1 teas. salt
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup shortening, soft
½ cup water
2½ cups oatmeal, uncooked
½ cup jelly or jam

Sift together the two and one-half cups flour, one teaspoon each soda, and salt into a bowl. Add the one cup sugar, one cup shortening and one-half cup water. Beat until smooth, about two minutes and fold in the two and one-half cups oats.

Sprinkle a breadboard generously with confectioners' sugar. Roll dough very thin. Cut with cookie cutter. Cut a design in the center of half the cookies. Place plain cookies on a lightly greased cookie sheet. Top with one-half teaspoon jelly and cover with designed cookie, lightly pressing edges together.

Bake in a moderate oven (350-degrees) 10 to 12 minutes. Makes 3½ dozen cookies.

These Peek-A-Boo Cookies take a bit of time and care to cut and fill them. But the result is well worth your time. Be sure to use plenty of powdered sugar on the board.

Just in case you are not so enthusiastic about baking cookies that require extra care, here is a recipe that makes delicious filled cookies with very little work.

JAM GEMS

½ cup shortening
One-third cup sugar
½ teas. salt
1 teas. vanilla
1 egg
One and two-thirds cups flour

Cream together the one-half cup shortening, one-third cup sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon vanilla and one egg. Add the one and two-thirds cups sifted flour and blend well.

Drop by spoonfuls onto greased baking sheet. Shape into small volcanos and fill crater with jam. You might want to use two kinds of jam, such as apricot and blackberry. This gives your little darlings a choice and something to fight about.

Bake in 350-degree oven from 12 to 15 minutes or until the edges are golden brown.

Any cookie that combines chocolate and peanut butter would make a great hit with most children and many adults also. I am among the many who find these two goodies irresistible, so when I found this recipe that uses both and doesn't require baking I latched right onto it.

POWELL'S PERFECTION COOKIES

¾ cup butter
1¾ cup sugar
½ cup cocoa
½ cup milk
½ cup peanut butter
1 teas. vanilla
1½ cups rolled oats

Blend together the one-fourth cup butter, one and three-fourths cups sugar, one-half cup each, cocoa, milk and peanut butter and the one teaspoon vanilla. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly until it boils. Boil 2½ minutes. Remove from heat and add the one and one-half cups rolled oats.

Drop by spoonfuls onto buttered baking sheets. Chill in refrigerator.

DOUBLE DATER COOKIES

1½ cups butter
1 cup sugar
1 egg beaten
1 teas. vanilla
½ lb. dates, chopped
¾ cups rice cereal
¾ cups flaked coconut

Mix the one and one-half cups butter, one cup sugar, one egg and one-half pound chopped dates in a heavy saucepan. Place over low heat, stirring constantly, until well creamed. Increase heat to medium and bring to rolling boil, boil 1 minute. Remove from heat and stir in one teaspoon vanilla, and the three and one-half cups cereal until well mixed.

Spread the three and one-half cups coconut on waxed paper. Drop date mixture by teaspoonsful onto coconut and shape into tiny logs.

HELP DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Ted Genis is looking for a coffee cake recipe. She writes that it is called "Almond Tea Cake" and that she's seen it in bakeries.

It's very moist in texture and topped with slivered almonds, sprinkled with confectioners sugar. I assume it's a yeast dough. If any of you good cooks have such a recipe would you share it with us? Mrs. Genis is one of the generous gals who sent us the oatmeal cake recipe.

Another good cook, Mrs. Linwurst is looking for a recipe for persimmon jam or marmalade. Will you check your files for this recipe also?

Father Conducts Son's Marriage

The First Lutheran Church in South San Francisco was the setting for the recent marriage of Margaret Secor and Kenneth Wyneken. The Rev. Martin L. Wyneken, father of the bride, performed the ceremony.

Margaret, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Secor of Barstow, wore a white peau de soie gown appliqued with French lace and seed pearls.

Judy Herrmann of Bellflower was the honor attendant for her former college roommate. The bridesmaids were Janet Wyneken of South San Francisco, sister of the bride, and Sharron Siebert of Richmond.

Jim Wiebel of Seattle stood with Kenneth as best man. The guests were seated by Jon Secor, brother of the bride, and Ron Arnold. David Secor, brother of the bride, was the candlelighter.

After a reception at Lyle's Restaurant in South San Francisco and later in the church hall, the couple left for a wedding trip through Northern California. They will live in St. Louis, Mo.

The new matron is a graduate of Concordia High School and Junior College in Oakland and received her bachelor's degree from Concordia Teachers College in River Forest, Ill. She also is the sister of Mrs. Sam Hoyt.

Mother's Club Has Breakfast, Plans Meeting

Mrs. George Valente, president, greeted all mothers who attended the traditional "welcoming breakfast" of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Mother's Club.

Chairmen of the event were Mrs. Gerow Murphy and Mrs. John Sans, who decorated the head table with a large floral arrangement of blue roses, and all the guest tables with copper vases filled with a variety of red, white and copper-toned flowers.

Friday's Ticket Day in Three Shop Centers

Friday will be Mary's Help Hospital Guild "ticket day," it was announced today.

A train with a survey top, donated by Abe Ettin of A & D Travel Signs, will be seen in Westlake, Skyline Plaza and Linda Mar Shopping Centers, with pink uniformed women canvassing the areas.

Proceeds from the event — winners to be announced at the Guild's fashion show and luncheon October 18 — will go toward the Guild's building fund: an eighth floor cardiac ward, for which the unit has pledged $150,000.

Ursuline Guild Meeting Today

The Ursuline Guild of St. John's High School will hold its first meeting of the school year today at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium, 4056 Mission St. presided over by our President, Mrs. William Kovach.

In answer to many requests the Guild will sponsor a series of "Tuesday Luncheon and Games" again this year. The first will be held Sept. 12, in the school auditorium, 4056 Mission St. at 11:30 a.m.

All proceeds will help purchase new educational aids for the students.

POLITICAL PARADE

Roy Archibald, San Mateo city councilman and regarded as a leading Democratic candidate for Congress from the Eleventh Congressional District, said the "national elections in South Vietnam represent the best present hope for stabilizing the explosive political situation in Southeast Asia."

Archibald emphasized that the Vietnam balloting Sunday, underscored by the heavy turnout at the polls, "provided little fuel for the pessimists who before the first ballot was cast discarded the chances for a democratic and representative public election."

"Problems should be solved at the source by the people concerned," Archibald said. "The election is a constructive and positive step in the right direction. Now, the duly elected government must assume a responsible role for the conduct of its national affairs and for working through the United Nations for an honorable and satisfactory conclusion to the hostilities."

Archibald, campaigning from main headquarters at 1218 South El Camino Real in San Mateo, said he hoped these points will be pursued by the new South Vietnamese government:

1. The role of the South Vietnamese should be "escalated" in the political, military and economic spheres.
2. The government of South Vietnam should carry primary responsibility for proceeding through the United Nations for a practical solution to the war.
3. The United States should continue to extend support to South Vietnam at a time when the infant civilian government is gasping its first breaths of political life.
4. The U.S., insofar as its own military effort is concerned, should seek to lower the intensity of the war. The final solution to the Vietnamese problem does not lie in laying waste the cities of Vietnam.

Earl B. Whitmore, candidate for the Eleventh District congressional seat in San Mateo County, has called for strong new legislation to enable law enforcement authorities to take "swift, sure and stern action" in waging the war against crime.

Speaking before the Hillsdale Optimists' Club in San Mateo, Whitmore stated that, in spite of worthwhile rehabilitation programs and crime prevention studies now under way, "there is no substitute for effective law enforcement."

"Society needs new laws, better laws and stronger laws, making crime unattractive and unprofitable," he added.

Whitmore, who has served as San Mateo county sheriff for 17 years, has named lawlessness and violence as the crucial social problem facing the American people.

"Crime syndicates, youthful offenders, Communists, klansmen, corrupt politicians, labor racketeers and other criminal elements in our society are exacting a heavy toll on the strength and vitality of our nation," Whitmore said.

"In financial terms, it is costing $27 billion a year for crime — an average of $74 per year per family," Whitmore said.

William H. Draper, congressional candidate, declared today that President Johnson should clearly define our objectives in Vietnam.

"The objectives should be approved or disapproved by Congress, as an emergency measure. If approved, the administration should then direct the military to accomplish these objectives in the shortest time possible with a minimum loss of life."

Draper, who has been conducting a vigorous "walking campaign" making door-to-door visits getting citizens' viewpoints on both local and national issues, said that the people want and deserve a detailed definition of the administration's Vietnam policies and future commitments.

"Until these objectives are determined," he added, "there should be absolutely no more troops sent to Vietnam, and then only if called for as being necessary to meet the objectives."

Draper, who is a Korean veteran, pointed out that at no time in our history have the American people been so uninformed about their government's policies and objectives.

Mrs. Warren W. Jones, president of the San Mateo County Housewives' Association and prominent in club and civic affairs, today accepted appointment as chairman of volunteers for Sheriff Earl B. Whitmore's congressional campaign.

In welcoming Mrs. Jones to the Win-With-Whitmore team, General Chairman Perry A. Bydnes of Redwood City announced she will be in charge recruiting and directing the large volunteer staff at Whitmore for Congress headquarters in San Mateo and its Redwood City branch office.

A widow and former Woodside resident, Doris Jones makes her home at 75 Duane Street, Redwood City. She is the second woman to hold presidency of the Housewives' Association in the 27-year history of the organization.

Congressional candidate William H. Draper today praised The Times editorial of Thursday as a valuable contribution to the "War on Narcotics" which he has urged to fight the abuse of drugs on the Peninsula.

Draper, however, was quick to point out that the subcommittee report submitted by Dr. Downing was only one of five committees which will report to the Juvenile Justice Commission next week and in no way should be construed as representing their views, or recommendation.

Draper said that the commission's study of drug use headed by Eleanor Nettie is doing an excellent job and will provide the information needed for an all-out war on narcotics.

"I believe all parents were shocked to be told by the Downing subcommittee report to relax and not worry about their children taking dope," Draper said, "I am confident that the Juvenile Justice Commission will not accept this view of the problem."

"The whole record of the abuse of drugs by young people is one of grief, terror and even death and must be stopped or it will ruin this generation and according to doctors may well affect the next generation," Draper said.

Draper said that the proposed "War on Narcotics" would simply be a complete saturation educational program through use of newspapers, direct mail, radio, TV, P-TAs, schools (teachers and students), outdoor advertising and every known communication media.

POLITICAL PARADE

Dan R. Love, Jr., former mayor and city councilman of Burlingame, has returned to his San Mateo residence and will enter the William H. Draper congressional campaign on a full time basis, it was announced today by Dean A. Watkins, campaign chairman.

Love, who will serve as a volunteer vice-chairman of Draper's county-wide campaign, was honored last week at a testimonial dinner attended by more than 400 city, county, state and federal officials, including both municipal and superior court judges. The occasion was to honor Love for his 44 years of service with Southern Pacific as its legislative advocate.

The McCloskey for Congress Committee today announced that the third operating headquarters for the McCloskey campaign will open in Daly City at 6710 Mission Street on September 16.

Paul N. "Pete" McCloskey, candidate for Congress, Eleventh Congressional District, will be in the headquarters to greet local residents between 12 and 2 p.m. He will talk on issues of special interest to the North County and will answer questions.

The Daly City headquarters will be managed by Doug Walgren, Stanford law school graduate and resident of Daly City.

All county residents are invited to meet the candidate, Paul N. "Pete" McCloskey at the opening.

William H. Draper, congressional candidate, declared in an address before the San Carlos Rotary Club that the small businessman is finding it increasingly difficult to operate under the burden of excessive federal spending.

"Inflation is driving the small businessman out of business," Draper said. "Increased defense spending and continuation of support of improperly managed domestic 'cure all' programs are beginning to dip into the profits of small business."

He pointed out that the government should not expect the small businessman to bear the brunt of federal mismanagement of the nation's economy. "Not only has this growing inflation resulted in increased costs of his operation, but the small businessman also has had additional taxes levied against him to the point he is experiencing a major struggle to remain in business."

Draper is president of Sutter Hill Capital Company of Palo Alto, a small private business investment company which provides financial and management assistance to California small businesses.

Roy Archibald, candidate for Congress from the 11th Congressional District, has given his support to the proposed "Equal Rights for Men and Women Amendment" sponsored by the National Women's Party, Washington, D. C. The late Congressman Arthur Younger, whom Archibald seeks to succeed at the election on Tuesday, November 14, was one of the early signers in behalf of the proposal.

The amendment would guarantee "equality of rights under the law" for both sexes. It would support the principle of "equal pay for equal work."

"I am pleased to join thirty members of the thirty-eight member Congressional delegation from California in supporting this constructive proposal in behalf of ending discrimination against women," Archibald said. "If they do the job, they should get the salary that the specified job calls for."

Archibald, a Democrat, was contacted by Marjorie R. Longwell, Malibu, California, state chairman of the National Women's Party, regarding support for the equal rights measure. "I have assured Mrs.

Longwell that she has my support, just as Mr. Younger gave his so generously in the past," Archibald said.

Formation of a county-wide War Veterans for Whitmore committee is announced by its co-chairmen, Lloyd J. Tobey and Mrs. Harry C. Stanley, who have been leaders in San Mateo County and California veterans' circles for many years.

"Top officials of major veterans' groups and women's auxiliaries make up our committee's membership," the co-chairmen reported. "Our goal is to reach every San Mateo County veteran and his family with a message of endorsement for Sheriff Earl B. Whitmore's Congressional candidacy."

The primary election for the Eleventh Congressional District (San Mateo County) seat formerly held by the late J. Arthur Younger will take place November 14, with a run-off to follow on December 12.

"Veterans should be particularly interested in supporting Earl Whitmore because of his proven records both in public service and in veterans' affairs leadership," Tobey and Mrs. Stanley declared. "He is a World War II veteran who knows the problems of those who have served in their country's military ranks and who is pledged to work for just benefits to the veterans."

A testimonial dinner honoring Sheriff Earl B. Whitmore will be given Thursday, September 28, at the Mounted Patrol Grounds in Woodside by friends and fellow members of the Patrol and supporters of his Congressional campaign throughout San Mateo County.

The dinner committee is headed by William E. Hansen of Portola Valley. The event is planned as an informal barbecue with a steak menu prepared by Ivan Sawyer of Belmont and Anthony Sorich of Woodside.

Charles S. Blair of Redwood City is in charge of reservations. The public is invited. A reception in Whitmore's honor is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. preceding the 8 o'clock dinner. The testimonial barbecue is one of a series of events planned by Whitmore supporters in all parts of the county.

"We who have known Earl both as a loyal friend over the years and as a dedicated public official are backing him to the hilt in his bid for election as San Mateo County's representative in Congress," Hansen said.

William H. Draper, congressional candidate, met with several Pacifica civic leaders for lunch last week at Nick's Restaurant in Pacifica, and discussed local issues of interest to coast residents.

Draper indicated that if elected to Congress, he would take "strong steps to have the U.S. Army Engineers complete their survey to ascertain the best method of preventing further erosion which is threatening the future development of Pacifica."

He said that after the engineers' report is filed, he would immediately ask for federal funds to build the type of seawall or other protection that would stop this destruction of private property, both commercial and residential.

Draper further stated that he would extend his fight for erosion protection to Half Moon Bay which is also experiencing severe erosion damage.

Chairman of the meeting was Mario Torrigino. Those in attendance were Chamber of Commerce president Bernie Cohn, City Councilmen Harland Minshew, Donald Root, Andrew Turner, Basil Gladieux and Mrs. Ken Strom, newspaper publisher William Drake, Mayor Grace McCarthy, F. A. Minshew, Lowell McGrew, Lyle Plange, James Campbell, Victor Vickers, and Budd Gillam.

LECTURE SERIES

Films Also At Pacifica

"The Age of Daydreaming," the first in a series of films and lectures, will be presented September 15, in Pacifica.

The films, also including "Sun and Shadow," "Nobody Waved Goodbye" and "The Game of Love" are part of a "Sun and Shadow," "Nobody Waved Goodbye" and "The Game of Love" are part of a four-week program entitled "Youth's Struggle for Identity," sponsored jointly by the College of San Mateo and Pacifica's Community Cultural Coordinating Committee.

It will run through October 6, with each weekly meeting beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Cabrillo School, Crespi and Ladera Way, Pacifica.

Dr. Walcott Beatty, professor of psychology at San Francisco State College, will use the films to help explain the difficulties and rewards youths of today face in our everchanging society.

With an additional four hours of discussion, one unit of credit is available to those who wish it. Tickets for the series are $3 available at the Dal Pac Art Gallery, 2027 Palmetto, the Park, Beach & Recreation Department, City Hall, Pacifica, and the CSM Box Office.

"The Age of Daydreaming" is a prize-winning film written and directed by Istvan Szabo in Hungary. Like youth everywhere, the young men and women in this film are looking for independence and direction in a world in which the attitudes toward work and personal relationships are rapidly shifting. Adding to the excellence of this film is Szabo's exceptional photography of modern-day Budapest.

Rabbis Will Be Guest Speakers

Rabbi Solomon Shore of Congregation B'nai Israel, Colma, and Rabbi Jacob Traub of Congregation Adath Israel will be guest speakers and panel discussionists at the Sept. 19 meeting of the Skyline B'nai B'rith women.

The panel discussion will be concerned with "What is a Jew," according to Mrs. Alan Heyman of Pacifica.

The session will begin at 8 p.m. at the Lake Merced Sports Center, near Daly City.

Mrs. Heyman also announced this week that well-known clowns — "Buffles and Ruffles" — will entertain at the children's fashion show, to be sponsored Sept. 24, from 2 to 4:30 p.m., by the Skyline B'nai B'rith women at the Lake Merced Sports Center.

Herrmann's Baby News store of the Westlake Shopping Center will present the fashions.

The chairman, Mrs. Robert Stein, is being assisted by Mrs. Gordon Sennett, Mrs. Norman Stone, Mrs. Melvin Goldsmith, Mrs. Norman Steinberg, Mrs. Seymour Zins and Mrs. Eunine Krow.

Mrs. Steinberg will be the commentator; Mrs. Know the pianist.

Donations of $1.50 for adults and 50-cents for children under 12 will go toward B'nai B'rith philanthropies, Mrs. Heyman explained.

A Hawaiian honeymoon followed the recent marriage of Mrs. and Mr. Arthur Ferretti (Nancy Restivo) at Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Restivo, Daly City; her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mario Ferretti of San Francisco. Barbara Restivo attended her sister and Dan Ferretti attended his brother. The couple will live in San Francisco. (The Wedding Photographer)

Ask Students To Share Cars

An urgent "share rides or take the bus" appeal is being sent by College of San Mateo's president, Dr. Julio L. Bortolazzo, to some 9,000 students who are expected to descend on the campus Monday for the opening of fall semester.

College parking facilities, despite being quite adequate for most normal periods of the year, with more than 4,300 spaces available, are always overloaded when classes start in September, Dr. Bortolazzo said.

THE LESTER R. MILLERS (Jesse James)

Daly City Home For Newlyweds

Jesse Margaret James and Lester R. Miller recited their marriage vows recently at the Temple Methodist Church. A reception at the Fox Hostess House followed the ceremony.

Jesse, the daughter of Mrs. Richard R. Slattery, was given in marriage by her grandfather, Abraham S. Block. She wore an ice pink Empire dress with a matching veil.

Jesse was attended by Toba R. Leighty as matron of honor and Sharon Ross and Mary Frances Loretta, bridesmaids.

Ronald Miller stood with his brother as best man and the guests were seated by Kerry Jensen and Frank Brunette. After a wedding trip to Expo '67 and New York City, the couple will be at home in Daly City.

The new matron attended Westmoor High School and the College of San Mateo.

Keeping Hair Styles Abreast of Techniques

It wasn't too many years ago that just about the only house paint color was "landlord tan." And, remember when white sales were strictly white?

That was the time, also, when hair colorings were simply harsh blonde, plain black, standard brown and artificial red.

Today, 1967, however, there is a world of color. A complex world that requires for almost in every type of industry the highly skilled talents and training of artists and decorators, of chemists and of technicians who can develop very delicate equipment.

For m'lady's crowning glory, the world of color is so bountiful that the almost endless possible shades and combinations of colors would tax the mind of an Einstein.

Indeed, the beauty industry has advanced so far and so fast in the area of hair tints in recent years that hairstylists must attend classes if they hope to keep abreast of what is available and of the new techniques of application.

Such classes in the use of hair colors and in their chemical makeup are now being conducted regularly in San Francisco for licensed beauticians every Monday by L'Oreal of Paris, the biggest cosmetics and hair coloring firm in the world, in co-operation with West Coast Beauty Supply Co., the largest distributor of supplies to the beauty salon industry in the West.

To any casual passerby observing these color clinics held every Monday in the West Coast Beauty Supply Co. showroom at 786 Mission Street, it might seem she had stepped into the middle of a rainbow and was asked to understand the physical properties of each color and shade and tone.

It is vital that the forward-looking stylist keep an eye towards the new fashions and colors in clothes for knowledge of new trends aids the beautician and salon in planning the latest styles, services and products for m'lady's coif.

The Color Association, as an example, claims the new fall fashion in clothes will feature such colors as:

EARTH, a brown that becomes a vigorous companion to any color scheme and calls particular attention to earth as the beginning of all life and nourishment in the face of all the space activities.

PLUM TONES, with the whole violet into purple range, will be strong, offering numerous beauty ideas.

HEATHERS, multi-toned and enhanced by high color nubs, will lead as neutrals.

DASHING BRIGHTS, copper, gold, perky, turquoise, pansy yellow, violet, dashing red, royal box (cornflower-hued) will propel sportswear into the swing.

DOUBLE RICH tones of bright flame, hunt green, British sterling, black steel (great gray-black), ginger spice and true blues will reveal the coat and suit story.

Dresden dolls, peppy tints and bright splendor cover the spectrum for silks and synthetics. Every prime tone is represented from petite pink (barely there) to choco brown (rich as straight sugar) to vermeil (rouge).

In other words, this fall the yellows will be tangy; the whites creamy; oranges will shift to red overtones; greens are accented with yellow lights or else stay bright and true; blues go strong; pink, as a personality tone, adds zip to any combination; red proves its power when bright; plum-purple will be important, and browns will be a catalyst to any color.

For these colors, the hair stylist now must anticipate new hair tints to complement the forthcoming fashions.

Thus, to the up-to-date beautician, the color clinics are the very key to a major facet of the beauty profession.

The hundreds of thousands of women who daily step out of the beauty salons in radiant new hair colors to beguile the opposite sex and invoke accolades from disaff friends, take for granted the matter of hair tinting and the hair stylist's selection of the proper shade to enhance her appearance.

Little does the beauty patron appreciate — or know — that her stylist probably spends many hours a year receiving special instructions at West Coast Beauty Supply Clinics.

The clinics are conducted by L'Oreal factory-trained representatives who present day-long classes to groups of beauticians ranging from 30 to 40 ... but never exceeding 40 at any one time. The beauticians, of course, must bring their own models.

West Coast, for instance, has six of these technical instructors who, frequently, stage as many as seven classes a week. For, in addition to the regular

Monday classes in San Francisco, these color technicians hold traveling clinics in the Berkeley, Hayward, Concord, Stockton, Sacramento, San Jose, Chico and other cities and towns throughout Northern California, averaging about two clinics a year in key, centrally located communities in the different counties.

The color clinics are free and are part of the intensive service and training

BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD JOHNSON

Bimbo's 365 Books New Vaudeville Band

THE NEW VAUDEVILLE BAND, from London, England, whose multi-million seller record "Winchester Cathedral" swept the country a few months back, opened a one-week stand at Bimbo's 365 Theater - Restaurant, last night. They will present three shows nightly — 8 and 10:15 p.m. and 12:55 a.m. The New Vaudeville Band is just what the name says: no mod rock and roll about it. Its members (seven youngsters between the ages of 19 and 26) play ordinary band instruments for the most part. Not since the Beatles has an English long-haired group caused such a stir in America... Gregarious Greek Lennie Christolas, the night plankman at Bruno's, has almost as many stories to tell as co-owner Bruno Fava has recipes to file. Besides being adept at conversation, Lennie's big specialty is Creme de Almond, with a cream float. It's guaranteed to be a great lady pleaser.

FRANCIS PARDUE, a real pro in the business of making everything from weddings to formal banquets to casual association meetings a real success, reports that Stickney's of San Mateo is now busy arranging dates for banquets and club meetings for the coming season. Francis takes personal charge of the lower floor banquet facilities decor, hors d'oeuvres, as well as directing the special staff of servers.

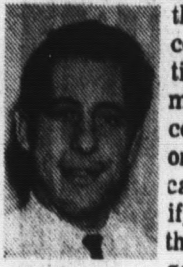

The Pizza Huts (Millbrae and San Carlos) feature the ultimate in family-style dining. As one of the "Friday Family Specials," valid also Saturday and Sunday, the Pizza Huts are offering a large Sausage and Mushroom Pizza for the unbelievable price of $2.55. Pizza Huts are equipped with the latest in modern restaurant machinery, which enables them to prepare more pizzas in less time than you'd ever believe possible. By watching the kitchen activities of the Millbrae or San Carlos Pizza Huts, you'll soon get the production picture.

LEW AND EDITH LEHR became grandparents for the fourth time — all grandsons — when daughter Maria, wife of attorney David Norwitz, had a son. Daughter Naida, wife of Paul Levin, has had three sons. Lew and Edith say when the fifth son arrives they will form a basketball team and call it "Lew Lehr's Warriors!"... If you get the task of Program Chairman for your next social activity, call Antoine, the affable maitre'd at the Carousel restaurant, next to the Circle Star Theater. He will provide you free with a list of program entertainment suggestions — speakers, beauty experts, humorists, whatever you need — and also will set you up in the beautiful new party rooms. Adjustable walls and a separate outdoor entrance insure complete privacy and comfort for your group... Shirley Temple Black, a frequent diner at L'Auberge in Atherton, is in deep conversation, these evenings, with her husband, Charles Black.

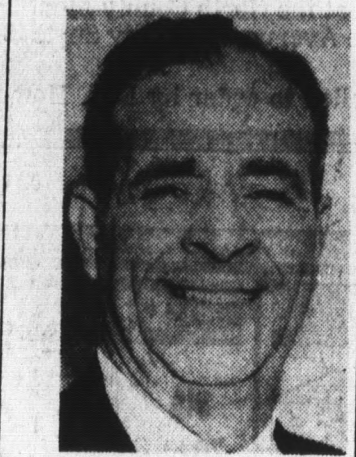

Edith Lehr

WEEKEND DINERS can expect to see numerous special menu attractions at the Fork 'n' Cork in the very near future. Co-owner Julie Proul is working on a list of entrees which will be offered for "Sunday only" dining. You can bet that Julie and husband, Vic, will create an exceptional, yet budget conscious, entree selection. After its introduction, they hope to see more family gatherings in the restaurant's recently remodeled "Fork" room... Any item on the menu at Jim Llewellyn's El Patio Mexican restaurant in Menlo Park could easily qualify as your Bright Lighter's taste tip of the week. Besides a varied selection of finger lickin' Mexican specialties — such as Corn Tortillas and Tacos of several different varieties, Chef Robert Artiz also prepares many American favorites for luncheon and dinner patrons. So if you're not a Mexican food fancier, but your guests are "mad about it," the El Patio will give everyone something to rave about.

CARLO FASOLO
Black Angus Chuck Wagon

Carlo Fasolo "Human Fly"

Thought I'd seen just about everything that could happen in the restaurant business, until the other night when I stopped in the Black Angus Chuck Wagon to "put on the feed bag" and have a visit with Carlo Fasolo, general manager and co-owner of this popular "All-you-can-eat" San Mateo restaurant. Usually, Carlo greets his guests at the front door, or stops by your table for a chat. Lo and behold, this eve he was climbing about the 30-foot high beamed ceiling replacing neon tubes. We sat in awe as he descended, which was "hand over hand" right down the wall, Carlo smiled and said, "During World War II I was known as the 'Human Fly.' It was nothing for me in those days to climb right up the side of a building." Wow! What a man, this Fasolo!

One of the most imposing, if not THE most imposing, entrance to a restaurant in San Francisco is the Grand Circular Staircase leading into the Wellington Room at Phil Lehr's Steakery. It's on the Taylor and Ellis Streets parking lot entrance.

Mary Knudsen has forsaken the Lake Tahoe area and is again serving delicious home cooked meals at her Burlington Denmark House.

Mr. Clean Brightens The Fireside Lounge

THE FIRESIDE was "burning brightly" last weekend, as the super Mr. Clean and the Uncalled Four, who have a way of making cash registers play a merry tune wherever they are, took over the spotlight for a limited engagement. If you like the "now" generation dance sounds, then stop, look, listen, and by all means gyrate, to the musical vibrations of this aggregation of music makers. Adding spice and beauty to the talent-packed action here is an all-new All-Girl Topless Revue. Action and entertainment is a specialty with Jack McRae and Phil Malta, hep owners of this peppery lounge on El Camino Real, San Mateo.

Augie's Now Open For Sunday Dinner

Starting Sunday, September 10, Augie's on Third Avenue will abandon a previous policy, and will open for dinner on Sunday afternoons. Also, look for owners Augie and Phyllis Aprille to initiate valet parking for their many patrons. As a reminder: The current dinner show, featuring Miss Beverly Lane and The Union Squares, is a pure delight.

Vince Licata "Fleet Captain"

Besides frequenting Vince's fine restaurant, more and more Peninsula residents are finding that for fresh sea food, poultry and other delectable delicatessen items, the Licata family seems to have a "monopoly" on the market. Long known by knowledgeable seafood lovers as the fishing "Fleet Captain" of the Peninsula, this likable gent does a thriving delicatessen and restaurant business.

Scotty Campbell's "Campaign Headquarters"

The local political battles have most intelligent people contemplating the various candidates and important issues at hand — and diners at Scotty Campbell's in Redwood City are of no exception. By having dinner here and keeping their ears "perked," anyone not familiar with the always-changing Peninsula political scene can become well informed in an evening.

Great news for Japanese food lovers: Bob and Dorothy Masuda are back in "kitchen action" at their thriving Fuji Sukiyaki restaurant, after taking a short vacation. This is one of my big favorites — and after one visit here you'll think the same.

Alexi's Zorba Overnight Hit

One of the outstanding success stories in the restaurant world, this past year, has been the overnight acceptance of Alexis Zorba as one of the Bay Area's most popular supper clubs. Owners Mike Kourkoulakis and Michael Nicolas have shown an unusual flair for creating the extraordinary. Attractions range from the authentic Greek dining creations of chef Peter Alex, to a top-notch entertainment lineup featuring several of the world's top performers. Excitement reigns every night of the week, here. Reservations are suggested.

Open Season For Banquets Villa Chartier

Most restaurant owners will tell you there is a season for banquets. However, after scanning the Villa Chartier and Lanai reservation books for future party dates, it must be "open season" here the year 'round for important events. No matter what the occasion, from a Luau to a Maine Lobster feast, Emerson Murfee's efficient staff of party experts will be delighted to help you plan the arrangements. The Villa Chartier's elegant, new Winchester Room and eight other well-appointed banquet rooms, are available. Plenty of parking space, with an attendant to park your car.

Try Using Budget Beefsteaks

Steaks for a crowd? It's possible. And you needn't break the bank to pay for them. Top quality California beef steaks come in all shapes, sizes and prices.

Consider the top round for rippled steaks to grill over the hibachi. This full flavored cut is all meat, not waste. Slice it in thin diagonal strips and saturate it with a good marinade before rippling on skewers. They fit quite neatly into grilled hot dog buns or crusty French rolls. If you're not doing the steaks outside, the simplest and best method for almost any thin steak is pan broiling in a hot skillet with just enough oil to prevent sticking.

For impromptu parties, tender economical cube steaks are easy to fix and ready in minutes. After a quick grilling, spread the sizzling steaks with onion and dill seasoned butter. Toasted slices of French bread are good blotters under these juicy, buttered steaks. Garnish the platter with ripe olives and tomato slices for colorful go-alongs.

Although not in the steak category, burgers of lean ground beef are always the younger crowd's first choice. To make stuffed burgers, put two patties together with mustard, relish, cheese and an onion slice between. Guests will be surprised when they bite into these!

RIPPLED BEEF STEAKS

The drained marinade blended with onion and catsup makes a snappy sauce to pour over the beef strips as they go into the buns.

1 1/4 pounds top round steak
1 cup red table wine
1 teaspoon seasoned salt
2 tablespoons wine vinegar
2 teaspoons honey
6 drops liquid red pepper seasoning
1/2 cup catsup
1/4 cup finely chopped onion
6 hot dog buns

Cut steak into 1/2-inch wide diagonal strips. Combine wine, salt, vinegar, honey and red pepper seasoning. Pour over strips; marinate several hours or overnight. ## Sauce, Egg Give Style To Sandwich

When is a sandwich more than a sandwich? When it's dressed up in open-face style with a slice of tomato, white sauce and hard-cooked egg, separated and yolk put through a sieve to top it.

Two ounces of cooked ham go into each sandwich. These may be "boiled" ham purchased already sliced, advises a home economist. They might also be what's left of the ham you bake for the weekend.

Goldenrod is an attractive way of serving some foods, like this sandwich. It means preparing a white sauce, to which has been added the chopped egg white. Egg yolk is pressed through a sieve for the showery golden topper.

Ham Sandwich A La Goldenrod

4 slices bread
4 slices (2-oz. ea.) cooked ham
4 slices tomato, cut 1/2-inch thick
Salt
1/4 cup finely chopped green onion
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 hard-cooked egg

Trim crusts from bread and place on broiler rack. Insert broiler pan and rack so the top of bread is three inches from the heat. Toast both sides of bread until lightly browned. Place a ham slice on each piece of toast. Top each with a tomato slice and sprinkle with salt. Broil until lightly browned, about five minutes.

Cook onions in butter or margarine three minutes or until tender. Stir flour and salt into onion mixture. Add milk and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Cut egg in half and remove yolk. Chop egg white and add to sauce. Heat through. Top each broiled sandwich with about 1/4-cup sauce. Rub the egg yolk through a sieve and sprinkle sieved yolk on top of each sandwich. Serve immediately. Yield: Four sandwiches.

1/4 cup soft butter
1/2 teaspoon instant minced onion
1/4 teaspoon dill weed
4 cube steaks (about 1 1/2 pounds)
4 slices French bread
Hickory smoke salt
Pepper
Sliced tomatoes
Ripe olives

Blend butter with onion and dill weed. Grill steaks quickly about 2 or 3 minutes on each side. Be careful not to overcook them. Toast bread. Spread one side with seasoned butter and place on hot platter. As steaks come from grill, season lightly with smoke salt and pepper. Roll over loosely on toast. Spread remaining seasoned butter over steak. Garnish platter with sliced tomatoes and ripe olives. Makes 4 servings.

RELISH STUFFED BEEFBURGERS

These hearty burgers are double patties with the usual condiments cooked inside.
1 pound ground beef chuck
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon monosodium glutamate

1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
2 tablespoons pickle relish
2 tablespoons grated blue or Cheddar cheese
3 thin slices onion
Lightly mix beef with salt, monosodium glutamate and pepper. Divide into 6 portions; shape each into 4-inch patty. Combine mustard, pickle relish and cheese. Spoon on 3 patties; top with onion slice. Cover with remaining 3 patties and press edges together to seal. Grill, broil or pan-fry to desired degree of doneness. Makes 3 servings.

Camembert Care

If you take Camembert cheese from the refrigerator just before serving, here's a chef's trick worth knowing. Put the cheese into a 300 degree oven for 30 seconds to bring it to the soft stage preferred by cheese connoisseurs. If any cheese is left on the tray, convert it into tasty sandwiches for supper.

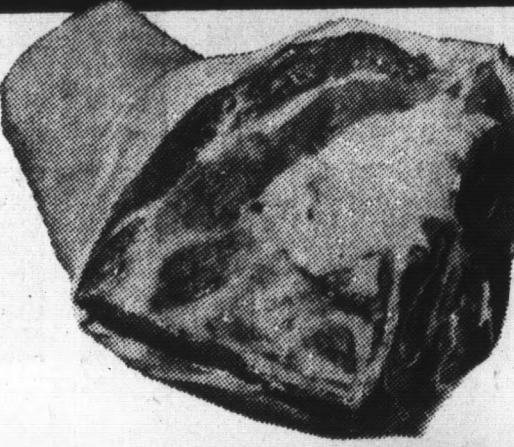

GOOD MORNING BEEF STEAKS for energy plus breakfast. Brown beef cube steaks quickly in small amount of hot oil. Arrange over toast and top with poached eggs. Serve with orange slices and coffee.

Pre-cooked Frozen Foods & Meat Products

EASY TO MAKE dinner pie uses diced potatoes, steak or tenderized boneless beef and prepared pie-crust and gravy mix, for a one-dish meal.

One-Dish Meal —Beefsteak Pie

The one-dish meal is nothing new. Certainly, it is always a great time-saver, and these busy days that's important. Instead of the usual casserole, however, here is a different approach — an Idaho potato and Beefsteak Pie, baked without a bottom crust, accented with brown gravy.

Luckily, versatile fresh potatoes are back on the market again after the summer, and the fine quality which makes them such an unbeatable baking potato also makes them perfect for a one-dish meal where they are cooked in combination with other foods.

This scrumptious, handsome dish has a distinguished English air and a quick and easy American approach. Great for a hungry family, it's elegant enough to serve to guests.

This is one recipe you can double or triple — it still turns out beautifully. So just expand the recipe to fit the number for dinner; serve it in your most impressive casserole or pie dish and you have a triumph assured. This pie is great reheated, too, although leftovers are so rare it took a long time for us to discover this fact.

This is also the kind of dish you can prepare ahead of time, refrigerate as long as overnight in the pie dish or casserole, and add the pie crust just before baking.

Another idea: prepare an extra and store in your freezer. It can save you precious time and also give you that nice feeling of always being prepared for unexpected guests.

IDAHO POTATO-BEEFSTEAK PIE

- 1½ pound top sirloin or top round steak, cubed
- Flour
- ¼ teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2-3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- ½ cup chopped onions
- 3 cups peeled, diced potatoes (about 3 or 4 medium potatoes)
- ¼ cup dry parsley flakes
- 1 package brown gravy mix (1 cup liquid)
- 1 9-inch top pie crust (unbaked)
- 1 egg yolk, slightly beaten
- 1 package brown gravy mix (to be served with pie)

Flour steak. Sprinkle with salt and nutmeg. Brown in butter or margarine. Add onions and saute with steak. Mix together steak, onions, potatoes, parsley flakes and brown gravy (prepared according to package directions). Place in a 9-inch pie dish or small casserole. Use the pie crust as a lid. Fold edges of pie crust under, moisten edge of pie dish before sealing by fluting with a fork. Brush crust with beaten egg yolk, mixed with a few drops of milk to make yolk easy to spread. Make small holes in center to allow steam to escape. Bake in 350-degree oven for 1½ hours. Serve with another package or two of brown gravy mix which has been prepared according to package directions, to spoon over servings of pie. Serves 4-6.

NOTE: Other lean, boneless beef cuts may be used, providing you treat them with tenderizer. The cooking time should be adjusted according to the nature of the cut used.

There are many one-dish meals possible when you use Idaho potatoes, for they go so well with everything. Idaho potatoes and frankfurters, ham, chicken or leftover meats, canned tuna or salmon, and many vegetables can be combined in a casserole with canned mushroom or celery soup, or many of the handy packaged sauce mixes, such as sour cream sauce, cheese sauce and so on.

The possible variations are almost endless — and no matter how you let your imagination go — it's almost impossible to make a mistake. For example, browning hamburger to put in a casserole with onion, salt, pepper, tomato soup, canned tomatoes or sliced or diced Idaho potatoes with a little extra water and baking for 1 - 1½ hours produces a delightful meal that almost makes itself.

Speed up casseroles or scalloped potatoes by precooking sliced or diced potatoes in salted water for 10 minutes. You'll cut your baking time by 30 minutes if you're cooking for six.

Good kitchen tools are a worthwhile investment, for they can save time and tempers. For example, there are many excellent choppers on the market now, built with springs, that will not only chop onions, but will also dice potatoes and other vegetables. Some are priced around a dollar and can be used on your cutting board to cut dicing time down to almost nothing. Idaho potatoes are another time-saver, for they peel easily with little waste because they have few and shallow eyes and their nice oval shape is easy to handle. These characteristics and their russet-brown net-textured skins will help you to recognize them.

Garbage Firm Seeks $5 Million Damages

Claims City Reneged On Its Contract

A damage suit totaling nearly $5,000,000 was filed in Superior Court last week by the San Francisco Fill Company of San Francisco against the city of Brisbane.

The suit, on behalf of the fill company, the Sunset Scavenger Company and the Golden Gate Disposal Company, contends that the city gave the fill firm a contract to deposit garbage in fill near the end of Sierra Point, but that the city has reneged on the deal.

In addition to $4,814,171 as alleged loss of value of property, the suit asks $50,000 in legal fees and return of $70,000 it claims it paid the city as part of an agreement to let the garbage firms dump garbage at the Sierra Point location.

The $4,810,171 represents a loss of value of the property between what it would cost to fill with garbage and what it would cost to fill by conventional means, the suit maintains.

Legal aspects of the suit are still pending in the State Appellate Court on a Superior Court ruling in favor of Brisbane's banning of garbage dumping at the Sierra Point site.

The Brisbane City Council originally approved a contract for the dumping, but a subsequent initiative election voided the contract, and the council, as a result, was forced to cancel the city's contract.

Robert Bernicchi

Bernicchi Wins Board Appointment

Robert V. Bernicchi, Engineer-Manager of the North San Mateo County Sanitation District, has been appointed as a director of the San Francisco Bay Section of the California Water Pollution Control Association.

Bernicchi was named to the post left vacant by the untimely death of David Irving of Consoer Townsend and Associates. Bernicchi's term will expire in November, at which time he will be eligible for re-election.

The appointment was made by Section Chairman John Stauff of Carleton Yoder & Associates at a meeting attended by member-at-large Glenn Davis of East Bay Municipal Utility District; vice-chairman Joseph Higare of the City of San Leandro; secretary Martin Roth of the Bechtel Corporation; committee chairman David McNulty of the City of San Francisco, and Bernicchi.

Bernicchi has been serving on the Association's Professional Development Committee and during the year 1967 was appointed Chairman of that committee.

This committee is responsible for furthering the professional development of water pollution control plant operators through a program of short schools and conferences.

The committee is also assigned the task of screening applicants for the Association's yearly Curry Award.

Pacifica Delays Hearing

Pacifica planning commissioners postponed a scheduled public hearing on a proposed greenbelt ordinance last week, after a local building development firm requested additional time to confer with the planning staff.

Planners formulated the new ordinance last month in order to "formalize city policy" on greenbelts, parks and natural scenic improvements.

The present policy is set down in memorandum form only.

Charles Trifeletti, a representative of Challenge Development Co., requested the postponement Tuesday. The public hearing was rescheduled for September 18, the next regular meeting date of the commission.

Commissioners said the proposed ordinance is composed largely of established policies and standard requirements of the planning office and the city engineer's office.

They said a "clear and concise statement of policy" is needed to provide better understanding for developers.

In other business Tuesday, the planning commission approved a variance requested by Lee Beckstead to allow conversion of a seven-unit apartment house at 122 Hilton Way to eight units, and to allow eight parking spaces at the site.

The commission also granted a variance allowing the Norris, Beggs and Simpson firm a 1 space per 237-square-foot parking ratio for a shop in the Linda Mar Shopping Center.

The city zoning ordinance calls for a parking ratio of one space for each 180-square-foot of floor space.

A permit was granted for expansion of the W. T. Grants store in the Linda Mar Shopping Center, subject to a number of conditions, and commissioners scheduled a public hearing September 18 on a proposed amendment to the city's parking regulations.

A committee of local civic leaders and businessmen have proposed that the parking requirements be changed from the present one space per 180-square-foot of floor space ratio to one space per each 500-square-foot.

Color Set Is Stolen

Burglars took an estimated $825 worth of belongings, including a color television set, from the apartment of Betty Svensen of 935 El Camino Real, South San Francisco, last week.

South San Francisco police said the victim also listed as missing a wedding ring, a set of earrings and a suit.

Transit Attitude Assailed

Western Greyhound Lines wants to get out of commute service in the Bay Area, Gus Jamart, consultant to the West Bay Rapid Transit Authority, reported to the authority's board members last week.

Although directors agree the bus company's attitude is not as bad as that of the Southern Pacific railroad, Director Dan R. Minto termed the company's attitude as one of "the hell with the public."

"Greyhound has at least expressed a willingness to cooperate with us, which is a lot more than the Southern Pacific has done," Director Howard Looney stated. "For that they should be commended."

In a report of a meeting held last week with R. N. Dick, vice president of transportation, and F. L. Nageotte, vice president and assistant to the president of the bus company, Jamart reported that although Greyhound is anxious to get out of the commute business it is willing to assist the West Bay Rapid Transit Authority "in organizing, operating or managing a transit service in San Mateo county on the assumption it would receive adequate compensation for its services."

Attending last week's meeting with the bus company executives were John C. Lilly, director of the local transit authority; his assistant, Ron Fisher, and Jamart. Jamart reported that the bus company does not feel it is the responsibility of private enterprise to operate a non-profitable public transit.

"Greyhound states," Jamart continued, "that it does not wish to expend funds to promote additional commute patronage because such additional patronage increases its losses."

Greyhound officials complained that commute service "is peak period service and requires that the company pay a full day's wages for one or more drivers even though they drive for fewer hours than a full day."

The company cited one case of where a driver drove only 45 minutes a day but had to be paid a full day's wage. "A commute bus and driver costs about $54 per day it brings in revenues of about $30," Jamart reported. He said the company is primarily interested in long haul operations, and company officials complain that Bay Area commute service results in higher long haul fares because of the drain they put on the company.

However, the consultant reported, Greyhound is willing to provide maintenance service for WBRTA equipment, provide management and supervisory services for a long period or an initial period in which the local transit authority's organization could be developed and trained, or provide "full management, supervisory and operating personnel and equipment."

If the local authority "should assume responsibility for public transit in San Mateo county, Greyhound would not wish to continue the Santa Clara portion of its present operation without additional compensation," Jamart said.

Minto cited how the AC Transit company in Alameda and Contra Costa counties in the East Bay is advertising for new customers.

In other actions, the transit board:

Agreed to transfer $29,809 originally set for an economic feasibility study to a special fund for a public relations campaign to begin next year. Lilly based his request on the fact that the public should be informed before they are called to vote on a transit system in 1969.

Westborough Green Light

South San Francisco councilmen adopted two resolutions authorizing development of the 10-acre Westborough Square Shopping Center at Westborough and Juniper Serra Boulevard Tuesday.

Councilmen withheld the shopping center permit requested by developer Ted Connolly and Caesar-Callan Homes, Inc., several months ago as part of a move to assure completion of a city park and fire station site in the Westborough planned community.

Four Arrested After 'Pot' Is Found in Car

Four persons, including a 17-year-old, were arrested in Daly City last night for possession of marijuana.

Officer Dennis Gosgrove stopped a car occupied by the suspects for a minor traffic violation and allegedly spotted the marijuana, contained in a plastic bag, inside the vehicle.

The accused were identified as Paul Flynn, 19, Charles R. Ellis, 20, Mark Decalso, 19, and an unidentified youth — all of San Francisco.

The youth was sent to Hillcrest Youth Guidance Center.

DR. RICHARD TRAPP — A CLASSICIST

At San Francisco State
Daly City Professor, A Classicist, Probes Past

Dr. Richard L. Trapp, Associate Professor of Classics, and a Daly City resident of two years at 75 Midvale Drive, is a classicist who believes in research into the past to locate the roots of present day events and institutions.

To implement Dr. Trapp's search into antiquity the San Francisco State College, where he is one of the more than 1,100 faculty members, has placed him at the head of its new department — Classics.

He is the Chairman of the Classics Department where a student may find an interdisciplinary area where he may merge the study of language — Greek or Latin — with the notable literature, history, art, and all the vivacious culture of the Mediterranean area.

"Here is the heritage of our Western civilization and culture, or language and thought," says Dr. Trapp. "Our own institutions possess the roots of the institutions of ancient Greece and Rome."

There already are 270 enrollees in the classic subjects according to Dr. Trapp.

More than 70 students are studying in the two areas of the classic language — Latin and Greek. Others are registered in Classical Archaeology where students may probe deeper into the classical cultures through the literary monuments. "One of the strongest contributing factors inciting interest in the classics is through the current intense interest in comparative literature," says Dr. Trapp.

He received his secondary education at St. Joseph's College where he was graduated in 1941 with a high school diploma from the Mountain View school. The U.S. army moved him about the world for the next three years with stays in England and "travels" back-and-forth through France and Germany — he was being prepared for jungle warfare when the conflict of World War II ended.

To acquire his classical background the veteran entered the University of California at Berkeley and made this scene for a number of years acquiring a B.A. degree in 1949, his M.A. in 1952, and taking his doctorate studies between 1952 and 1955. His Ph.D. was conferred in 1959. During this time Dr. Trapp also taught at the University of Arizona, the University of California, and later at Stanford and U.S.C. He came to San Francisco State in 1965.

Dr. Trapp and his wife, Carol, have four children. Their twins, Barbara and Bob, 12, are students at Holy Angels School in Colma; his 15-year-old boy, Thomas, who attends St. Ignace High School and was involved in rescue work this summer at Fairbanks, Alaska, and Kathleen, 16, is a senior at Mercy High School.

Redeemer's Church Sets Rally Sunday

Rally Sunday, September 10, 300 youth are expected to return for enrollment in the church school at the Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church, South San Francisco.

Plans are also announced for Rally Sunday to begin a Religious Film Festival for the spiritual enrichment of youth and adults.

Each Fall (in years past) a special guest pastor has preached.

This year, three thought-provoking films have been chosen to stimulate discussion.

They are . . .

Sunday evening, End of Summer, depicting the charmed world of adolescence which adults never again penetrate; Sept. 12, Adventure of An (Asterick), colored, animated cartoon, winner of the Venice Film Festival traces effects of ill-training on adults which was experienced from childhood; Sept. 13, the festival closes with showing It's About This Carpenter.

These films will be seen each evening at 8.

All films are highly recommended for both youth and adults.

Bethlehem's 'Rally Day' On Sunday

Rally Day at Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 533 Hickey Boulevard, Pacifica, will be Sunday, announced Robert Carnahan, chairman of the church Board of Education.

A full staff of teachers will greet new classes at 10.

All Sunday School pupils will be promoted into the next grade.

Worship services are held at 9 and 11 a.m. each Sunday, with nursery care provided.

Parents are encouraged to bring their children with them to the 9 a.m. family worship, then stay for Sunday School and Christian Education hour at 10.

There are classes for all ages at this time.

According to the professor, who is a warm, good-humored man of 44-years, there is a renewed interest over most of the United States in the study of classics. "When Sputnik was orbited it not only rocketed math into a new consideration," he says, "but it seemed to arouse a lively consideration in many other realms of knowledge, including the classics."

San Francisco State with Dr. Trapp is doing its best to satisfy the curiosity in antiquity and under the genial professor are sure to make it stimulating for a number of serious students.

Constitution Week Noted In Daly City

Daly City Mayor Bernard Lyett has proclaimed September 17-23 as "Constitution Week" in the city.

In his proclamation the mayor said:

"Whereas, September 17, 1787, is notable as marking the 180th anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States of America by the Constitutional Convention; and

"Whereas, to accord official recognition to this memorable anniversary, and to the patriotic exercise which will form a noteworthy feature of the occasion, fitting and proper; and

"Whereas, in accordance with Public Law No. 915, the President of the United States has issued a Proclamation designating September 17th through September 23rd as Constitution Week.

"Now, therefore, I, Bernard J. Lyett, Mayor of the City of Daly City, do hereby proclaim September 17th through 23rd, 1967, as Constitution Week in the City of Daly City and urge all residents to display the flag of this country during this week."

Seedlings Lost In Grass Fire At Pacifica

A grass fire burned into one Park Pacifica backyard and threatened most of six others as it destroyed most of 200 seedling trees at 11:30 a.m. Sunday.

Pacifica firemen said the blaze burned over 1½ acres before it was controlled.

The seedling trees had been planted "up the hill," a fire department spokesman said, by Jerry Laliberto of 24 Crater Lake Court.

The burned area is a city-owned "greenbelt" area between Crater Lake Court and Mair Court.

It was Laliberto's backyard that was burned, the fire going through a chain-link fence. The flames were halted, however, before they could blacken the backyards of over a half-dozen other homes adjacent to the grassy, open area.

'Life' Topic For Sermon

"Spontaneous Life in Christ," based on Romans 6, is to be Pastor Walter Stram's 11 a.m. message, Sunday, at the Peninsula Church of Christ (Christian) meeting in San Bruno, at Angus Avenue West and Mason.

Bible Classes for all ages are at 9:45 a.m.

First Sunday evening meeting of the fall will be at 7, with the theme: "A New Thrill in Working With the Word of God."

Monaco Enters The Race for Congress

Daniel J. Monaco, resident of Atherton and a "wheelhorse" of Democratic party operations in San Mateo County, last week announced his candidacy for the 11th Congressional District seat of J. Arthur Younger.

Monaco, 45, thus becomes the 13th candidate and the fifth Democrat to announce he'll try for the post. He made the announcement at a press conference at his north county election headquarters in Daly City.

The special election will be November 14. If no candidate gets a majority of the vote, a runoff between the top candidate of each party has been set for December 12.

Mrs. Shirley Temple Black, who announced her candidacy with full fanfare last week, would be a "formidable candidate," Monaco said, adding he thought the campaign eventually would boil down to a race between Mrs. Black and himself.

Monaco's statement:

"Concurrent with this Congressional announcement, I also am announcing my resignation from the San Mateo County Democratic Central Committee, of which I have been chairman and a member for over 12 years. My resignation as a state tax appraiser already has been completed. I have done this as a matter of personal conscience. Running for office is a full-time job and I don't feel I could ethically discharge my duties in any other office because of the time involved and because of possible conflicts of interest.

"I have taken much time to decide whether or not to run because I do not take politics lightly. It is very serious business when we talk about Congressional representation. When I was a university teacher of political science I taught my students that they should place politics on a high level, and that they should prepare themselves early for any office they might seek.

"Too many of the present candidates who have announced their candidacy are against something or someone. One is even running against President Johnson. I feel it is necessary for the people of San Mateo County to have the opportunity of voting for one who is positive — not negative; one who is for something rather than against something. None seems to be running for San Mateo County. I intend to do just that! After all, our Congressman is supposed to represent and work for all the people of this district.

"My platform does not consist of campaign promises but rather of objectives, goals and priorities. I feel that 'nothing is impossible.' Any problem can be resolved if our resources and manpower are concentrated upon it. The issues uppermost in people's minds today are: Peace in the world, law and order with justice at home, and fiscal and tax reform.

"First of all, the war in Vietnam must be settled. This can be done as Senator Mansfield has suggested. The U. S. must mount a massive diplomatic offensive involving the United Nations and as many other agencies as possible. The completion of the first free elections in the history of Vietnam offers us the supreme opportunity to launch this offensive.

"Beyond this there must be effective international machinery to which nations can turn with their international problems.

Parents Ask $100,000 For Son's Injury

The parents of a Millbrae boy who allegedly was hit in the head by a rock more than six years ago have filed suit for $100,000 damages in Superior Court.

Charles A. Stock, Jr., asks the amount on behalf of his son, Terry, who was 9 years old when he was reportedly struck.

Named defendants are John W. Ross, Jr., a "Jane Doe" Ross and William Ross.

The suit, filed by attorney William McDowell of San Mateo, alleges that "John W. Ross, Jr., and Jane Doe Ross carelessly and negligently supervised and controlled said William Ross as a proximate result of which said William Ross carelessly and negligently threw a rock and hit plaintiff Terry Stock in the head."

The complaint alleges that the incident occurred Feb. 22, 1961, in Millbrae and that the Stock boy suffered a depressed skull fracture, as well as "shock and injuries to the nervous system."

Furthermore, the suit charges, it is believed that young Stock "has and will suffer loss of earning capacity."

The war in Vietnam is actually a symptom of a larger problem. The U. S. must take the lead in calling for a thorough reevaluation of the UN with the aim of revamping and strengthening the organization in the area of international conflict."

JAMES V. GREALISH, manager of Swanson's Westlake Bowl and a member of the Daly City Personnel Board, has been named as Daly City chairman for the campaign of Shirley Temple Black.

McDonald Will Open Headquarters

The official opening of campaign headquarters of Bryant McDonald, Democratic candidate for Congress, will be held at 185 School Street, Daly City, on Saturday, September 16.

Open house will be held from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Coffee and doughnuts will be served; everyone is welcome.

There to greet those attending will be McDonald, Thomas Maloney, campaign manager and L. R. McCormick, assistant campaign manager.

Avoids Boy, Carpenter Hurt in Crash

A Pacifica carpenter was injured shortly after 2 p.m. last Friday when he swerved his truck to avoid a boy crossing Cabrillo Highway and the vehicle hit an embankment and overturned, the Highway Patrol reports.

Leonard T. Scott, 51, of 443 Monterey Road, told Patrolman J. C. Hoffman that he was southbound in his truck and had just crested a hill about a quarter-mile north of Rancho Adobe Drive when he spotted the boy starting across the highway. He braked and swerved, hitting the bank, Scott related.

Scott was taken to Mary's Help Hospital where he was admitted for observation of a possible head injury. He was reported in satisfactory condition today.

Two youths were injured at 1:55 p.m. yesterday in a two-car collision at the Eastmont-San Pedro roads intersection with Junipero Serra Highway in Daly City, patrolmen report.

Officers said a car driven by Ronald D. Hirschfeld, 17, San Francisco, attempted a left turn from Eastmont onto Junipero Serra and collided with a car driven by Gerald J. Henders, 37, of 48 Valencia, Half Moon Bay, who was westbound across the intersection.

SSF Rec. Softball Next

South San Francisco Recreation and Parks Department will have an organizational meeting for the fall adult softball league next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Magnolia Recreation Center.

Participation is open to all residents of South San Francisco 18 years of age or older. Non-resident members of the industrial or business sponsored teams must work a minimum of 25 hours a week for that firm and the firm must be within South San Francisco.

League play is scheduled tentatively for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 6:45 and 8:30 p.m. All games will be played on the softball field at Orange Memorial Park.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Recreation Supervisor Bob Aronson. The Magnolia center is at Grand and Magnolia avenues.

"DENTAL HEALTH FACTS"

What is malocclusion?

Malocclusion is irregularity of tooth position and poor fitting together of the teeth on closing the jaws. Such irregularity not only may interfere with chewing and with speech but also may lead to disease of the gums and other supporting structures of the teeth (periodontal disease). Malocclusion may also produce deformities of the face.

Dr. Campbell tries to limit his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for some; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth. Dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

Gardening Classes For Daly City

The Jefferson Union High School District Adult Education will introduce a course in home gardening and landscaping this fall under the direction of Leo Baroway.

Classes commenced at Westmoor High School on Thursday, September 13. This course is designed to meet the needs of the many experienced and inexperienced home gardeners in that community.

The course, nine weeks in length, should be of interest to every new and old homeowner interested in better care and more beauty for his garden and home. It will be a practical, down-to-earth class which will deal with garden soils, lawns, and use of selective plants for the area. It will outline a garden work calendar as well as working principles of landscaping, pruning and spraying.

The class will be encouraged to discuss individual problems and projects and their over-all plans. It is hoped that during the course, a Saturday field trip to the lately enlarged Strybing Arboretum can be held which will be followed by a class discussion.

This course will aim to show how much can be done to beautify the home through small additions and simple projects.

Peninsula Roses Need Fall Care

By IVA NEWMAN

Peninsula gardeners are more fortunate than gardeners in other areas of the nation with regard to their roses for they can depend upon many weeks of good bloom during the fall season. In fact many local rosarians will have exceptional fine blooms for decorating both their Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner tables.

While rose plants are definitely healthier and more resistant to disease than they were ten or even five years ago, much of their year around loveliness is due to the kind of care they receive during the fall months of the year. Modern roses are steady producers of bloom from about mid-April (depending upon the type of Spring we have) until late November with a scattering of bloom through December. To obtain the full potential of your rose crop the plants must be fertilized, irrigated and protected from disease and insect pests at regular intervals just like any other plant crop.

Watering is one of the most important chores in rose growing that residents of this area must face. We cannot depend upon rain to do our watering at any time during the rose bloom producing period of the year. This past spring was an exception in that both cold and rain continued steadily until the middle of May. The heavy rain which we experienced during late March, all of April and part of May, produced the finest crop of blooms we have experienced in many years. This rain proved to most amateur rose growers that their plants had not been getting sufficient moisture during the early portion of their development. We have marked our calendar to start our deep watering immediately after the plants are pruned in the spring. Fall Watering Needed Water is also the crucial need for rose plants in the fall and we need to get the water down into the root area. This means that the soil must be soaked to a depth of eight to ten inches every time the roses are watered. Well-grown roses are heavily foliated this time of year and this means they transpire a great deal of water so the soil moisture should be checked frequently. We use a special soil tube, but this checking can be done by digging a small hole the depth of a trowel. Bring up a handful of soil from the bottom of the hole, squeeze it tightly and open the fingers. If the soil stays in a ball, deeply marked by the fingers it contains sufficient moisture for a few more days but, if the soil breaks into a crumbled mass it needs water right away.

We water our roses, at this time of year with a rose root feeder as the use of this sharp-pointed hollow rod lets us put the water down at the depth needed. By pushing it into the soil around the drip line of the plants you can soak the soil without disturbing the mulch, so no water is wasted. We also deep water and feed our shrubs and trees at this time of year with this handy garden tool. We give our plants a balanced fertilizer (15-25-10) that is mixed especially for roses and obtainable at most garden supply stores and nurseries, the first week of September. Then, beginning the first week in October we give a non-nitrogen fertilizer feeding (0-10-10), repeating it for a second feeding the last week of October.

Cards and games will follow the 11:30 a.m. affair. With each ticket, the guests will receive a ticket to the B'nai B'rith Harvest Ball at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel. For reservations, contact Mrs. Morton Goldstyn, 170 Amador Avenue, San Bruno. (Post Photo.)
